Japanese Report Large Scale Drive Against Guerrillas

IRREGULARS ACTIVE

Maintain Invaders Becoming Increasingly Confused

Shanghai—(AP)—Chinese declared today their forces had checked the Japanese on all fronts.

The Japanese said a new large-scale drive against Chinese guerrillas in Shantung province already had scattered 10,000 irregulars near Tsinan, Shantung provincial capital.

But the Chinese insisted the 42,000 light-and-run warriors in Shantung still were active and that campaigns in other areas were "continuing to be successful."

Guerrillas were said to have driven within 25 miles of Nanking. West of Kiukiang, the Yangtze campaign against Hankow, 135 river port used as a base for the Chinese, was said to be a smashing victory when a detachment of Japanese, being landed from warships, was routed after leaving protection of the invaders' naval guns.

Japanese "Confused"

In southern Shansi province, where the Japanese have been attempting a new campaign to carry them across the Yellow river, Chinese maintained the invaders were becoming "increasingly confused" before the combined onslaughts of Chinese troops and irregulars.

Unconfirmed reports said the high command of the Japanese armies in central China was removing its headquarters from Shanghai to Nanking, 165 miles farther inland.

North of Peiping, the Chinese said, guerrillas were keeping the invaders on the defensive by their harrying tactics.

Elderly Woman Killed in Crash

Husband in Critical Condition After Wreck Near Green Bay

Green Bay—(AP)—Mrs. Sylvester P. Hoeft, 77, of Green Bay, was killed and two others were injured when two automobiles collided at an intersection of Highway 41 near here last night.

Her husband, an 85-year-old insurance agent and driver of the car, suffered a skull fracture and was not expected to live.

Harold Sharkey of DePere, driver of the other automobile, escaped without injury. Miss Martha Beach, 16, a passenger with Sharkey, suffered minor hurts.

Mrs. Hoeft was a cousin of Harry P. Hoeft, Appleton city attorney.

Slate Blue Uniforms Considered for Army

Washington—(AP)—The war department disclosed today it was considering substituting a woolen field service uniform of slate blue for the army's present olive drab.

An official announcement said a limited number of the new uniforms was being manufactured for field tests by troops in all parts of the country. The final decision whether to adopt it will be made probably a year hence.

Two troops of cavalry at Ft. Bliss, Texas, two battalions of field artillery at Madison barracks, N. Y., two infantry companies at Ft. Francis E. Warren, Wyo., one infantry company at Ft. Sheridan, Ill., and one at Ft. George G. Meade, Md., have been chosen for the tests.

Judge Scents Trouble In Courtroom

A clove of garlic held up proceedings in federal court in Greenville, S. C. A witness had eaten the garlic and just couldn't seem to disguise the fact. At least the court scented the trouble.

Judge Wreche recessed for the day at 3 P. M., several hours ahead of schedule. If you are prone to be Garboesque and "want to be alone," we'd suggest a clove of garlic. It's guaranteed to run even your best friends away.

When you advertise your rooms, apartments or houses rent in The Post-Crescent Want Ads, you'll find it difficult to be alone. The prospective tenants just naturally beat a path to your door.

DIVORCE JUDGE DIES

Reno, Nev.—(AP)—The career of Judge Thomas F. Moran (above), who ended and started marriage for thousands flocking to this divorce capital, was closed today in death after 27 years as a jurist. After a year-long illness, the 74-year-old judge, known as "Barney" throughout Nevada, died last night but a few weeks after announcing his retirement.

In 1933, Judge Moran granted a divorce to Princess Barbara Hutton, the Woolworth heiress, from the late Prince Alexis, Mdwan. Judge Moran had granted as many as 40 uncontested decrees at 10-minute intervals in one day.

Hughes Tests New Oxygen Masks on Flight Across U. S.

Experimenting to Make 'High Altitude Flying Easy, Efficient'

New York—(AP)—Howard Hughes landed at Floyd Bennett airport at 6:55 a. m. C.S.T. today after a high-altitude flight from Los Angeles, undertaken to test a new type oxygen mask.

His elapsed time for the trip, on which he did not attempt to set a speed mark, was 10 hours and 34 minutes. He set a trans-continental record of 7 hours, 28 minutes and 25 seconds in January, 1937.

Glenn Odekirk, Hughes' airplane company superintendent; Harry Connor, chief navigator on Hughes' round-the-world flight, and Charles Perrine, radio expert, were with the wealthy flier-sportsman and former film producer. All wore two-piece gum and rubber masks.

Flies At 28,000 Feet Hughes flew the same ship in which he made his record-breaking globe-girdling flight last month. Hughes has been working for some time on a lightweight oxygen mask similar to that developed by Dr. Richard Lovelace, Mayo foundation surgeon.

The crews' masks were fed through rubber tubes leading from a single cylinder. The oxygen was three purified before they breathed it.

Although Hughes did not set a new transcontinental record, he beat the best previous transport record by almost 30 minutes. He flew at an average altitude of 20,000 feet.

Hughes and his companions said the new type oxygen mask held great possibilities for future flight at extremely high altitudes.

Ultimately, Hughes said, "transport operations will be conducted at altitudes of around 30,000 feet. Our present equipment and engines will not permit regular flight at that height. The point I want to make is this: that as an airplane leaves sea level the man at the controls becomes less efficient."

A good oxygen mask, permitting the pilot of the transport to breathe oxygen and the air of the same density as that at sea level is going to do much toward making high altitude flying easy and efficient."

Lilienthal to Return To Stand Next Monday

Knoxville, Tenn.—(AP)—A congressional committee investigating the Tennessee Valley authority rested today from a heated session in which TVA Director David E. Lilienthal charged the inquiry was "obtained through false pretenses."

The youthful-appearing, bespectacled director did not elaborate on the statement. He is to return to the witness stand when the hearing is resumed Monday.

Pickets at Church Continue to Prevent Transfer of Priest as Bishop Refuses to Revoke Order

Vulcan, Mich.—(AP)—Picketing parishioners of St. Barbara's Catholic church, who have blocked the church grounds since Sunday to prevent the transfer of their priest, were disappointed today by word that Bishop Joseph C. Placens, Marquette, Mich., refused to revoke the transfer of Father Simon Borkowski.

The general superior of the Salvatorian order at Rome yesterday placed in the bishop's hands the power to accept Father Simon within his diocese, in which case the order agreed to waive the transfer order.

Father Simon was loaned to the Michigan diocese 13 years ago.

Leonard Plourde, spokesman for the pickets, announced the determination of the more than 200 strikers to "see this thing through."

"We are continuing picketing because we believe we are righting an injustice done to our priest," Plour-

Propose Truce In North Shore Wage Dispute

Bondholders Want Service Continued Pending Board's Decision

PAY CUT IS ISSUE

Counsel Declares 'Question Is National In Scope'

Chicago—(AP)—A proposal to replace a 15 per cent wage cut with receiver's certificates was advanced today in an effort to end the Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee railroad strike.

A group of conferees, representing railroad bondholders and trustees and five labor unions, decided to present their proposition to A. A. Sprague, receiver for the line.

Sprague would have to obtain approval of the federal court before any such plan could be effected.

The truce proposal, which would continue from 60 to 90 days and permit early resumption of service between Milwaukee and Chicago, would duplicate the old contract in every respect except salary.

Harry E. Scheck, federal labor conciliator, said the road would be permitted to pay up to 15 per cent of the wages in certificates which would be redeemable when the line obtained the money.

Chicago—(AP)—A truce in the wage dispute that caused suspension of operations on the Chicago, Milwaukee and North Shore railroad was proposed today by representatives of a bondholders' committee.

H. William Ithric and Robert F. Carney, counsel for the committee, said an effort to obtain the truce would be made through negotiation with A. A. Sprague, federal receiver for the line.

The road suspended service Tuesday after organized employees quit work in protest against a 15 per cent wage cut and the company's refusal to arbitrate. The pay cut was approved by the federal court.

Ithric said the bondholders' committee wanted the electric line, operating between Chicago and Milwaukee, to continue service until the national railway mediation board disposes of the dispute involving a 15 per cent wage cut for employees of the nation's steam railroads.

Don't Want Precedent "We don't want the North Shore road to be the guinea pig in this question," said Ithric. "For the brotherhood unions involved in this strike, the question of the 15 per cent reduction is national in scope. They don't want a precedent set in this little case."

Ithric said the bondholders' committee felt the federal court could all a truce pending a decision in Class A railroad wage controversy.

Leonard Bajorok, regional director of the national labor relations board, promised the board would expedite its hearing Monday on the conflicting claims of jurisdiction between five unions involved in the North Shore dispute.

Company officials declined to negotiate with the unions until the board designated the employees bargaining agent.

Allege Russian Crew Tortured by Japanese

Moscow—(AP)—Tass, official soviet news agency, said today the Moscow government had sent a note to Japan "resolving protesting" against "unprecedented lawless actions" concerning the alleged mistreatment of a Russian ship crew.

Tass said information received by the commissariat of foreign affairs "established" that the crew of the soviet ship "Refrigerator" was detained by Japanese authorities May 31 in Soya strait and subjected to "inhuman treatment" by Japanese at the port of Wakkanai on the northernmost Japanese island of Hokkaido.

The news agency declared members of the crew, including Captain Bykovskiy, were beaten with sticks and their feet tortured with electric current in order to extract information on the armed forces of the U. S. S. R. and the internal situation of the country.

DEWEY GUARDED AT HINES' TRIAL

In the shadow of New York Supreme Court and well shadowed by his bodyguard, Thomas E. Dewey (right, mustache) enters building where Tammany Chief James J. Hines is being tried on conspiracy charges. Dewey told "blue ribbon jury" that Dutch Schultz mob advertised to the underworld that Hines was political protector of the multi-million dollar policy racket. The trial was recessed Friday for the weekend.

Sales Crusade American Way of Banding Together For Attack on Problems

BY DON ANDERSON

The "Sales Mean Jobs" crusade, upon which Appleton and vicinity has embarked is a truly remarkable demonstration of the American people's vigorous initiative and unselfish action in trying to better conditions that affect them all.

It is a demonstration of vigorous initiative because of the spontaneous manner in which the crusade has sprung up in cities throughout the nation, without any national governing body, without any paid managers. The "Sales Mean Jobs" cry was first sounded in Lincoln Nebraska. The cry was taken up in New York city, in Joplin, Missouri, in Boise, Idaho, and in many other communities and now it is heard, with ever increasing volume, in Appleton, Wisconsin.

It was a private firm, Nash-Kelvinator, that started the ball rolling. Feeling that by stimulating salesmen, business and industry would in turn be enlivened, the Nash-Kelvinator company held an experiment in Lincoln, Neb., in May of this year. Lincoln was chosen because it is a typical American city of 75,000 people, partly industrial.

Kendrick Is Told To Quit Germany

Reich Official Statement Declares It Has 'Proof' Of Espionage

London—(AP)—Captain Thomas Kendrick, veteran British passport officer mysteriously seized four days ago by German secret police, was ordered out of Germany today because of what an official German statement called "proof" of his conducting espionage.

The Berlin announcement stating the British ambassador, Sir Neville Henderson, had been requested to see that Captain Kendrick left Vienna at the earliest possible moment, coincided with a terse British official announcement that he had been released from custody.

He had been held at the Hotel Metropole in Vienna, Gestapo headquarters, where the former Austrian Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg also was believed held.

Although British spokesmen said they understood Captain Kendrick would leave Vienna for England tomorrow or Monday, they declared the nature of the accusation against him had not been communicated to the British government.

Kendrick was passport officer in Vienna for 13 years and had been called upon to grant hundreds of British visas for Jewish refugees since the annexation of Austria by Germany.

Charges Reds Preferred in Theater Work

Playwright Says Professional-Often Dismissed Without Cause

PROBE WAS HALTED

Claims He Was Stopped in Probing Qualifications of Actors

Washington—(AP)—Frank M. Verdi, playwright and actor, charged before a house committee today that non-professional actors and actresses favored by "Workers' Alliance" had displaced professionals fired without cause from the federal theater project.

Verdi charged — as some other witnesses before the committee investigating un-American activities have done — that the Workers' Alliance, formed to help people on relief, was using taxpayers' money to spread communism.

The playwright-actor said he spent several months last year investigating qualifications of actors in the WPA theater project but the inquiry was stopped by project officials within a week of its completion.

Assails Communism Charles Walton, WPA play director, testified "it was a known fact in New York that the way to get ahead in the New York federal theater projects was through the Workers' Alliance."

Walton said he "wouldn't have a communist on the lot — I regard them as trouble-makers" but that he was reprimanded for that attitude.

A third witness, Garland Kerr, actor and stage manager of New York, who became a federal theater project company director, said workers in one New York theater were paid by government funds while marching on a May day "communist" parade there in 1936. "They brought their signs to the theater and then went to the parade, doing no work at all that day," Kerr said.

Indiana Murder Trial Is Ordered Recessed Until Monday Morning

Michigan City, Ind.—(AP)—The trial of Orelle J. Easton, 25, of Valley City, N. D., for the murder of State Policeman W. Raymond Dixon of South Bend was recessed today until 9 a. m. Monday after opening statements by the prosecution and defense counsel.

Deputy Prosecutor Clarence T. Sweeney sketched dramatically the alleged criminal career of Easton and his brother, Clarence, relating numerous purported gun battles with police from the time they left Valley City June 9 until the Dixon slaying June 26. Orelle was captured and his brother slain in Illinois the following day.

Sweeney said the state would present at least a dozen witnesses from Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Paul Krueger, defense attorney, said he would substantiate Easton's plea of insanity through testimony of the family physician and other Valley City residents.

Refuses to Grant Writ To Free Youth From Jail

Madison—(AP)—Circuit Judge Alvin C. Reis refused a writ of habeas corpus today in the case of Eldridge Ishmael, 20, sentenced to Dane county jail for an indefinite term by Superior Judge Roy H. Proctor Thursday for refusing to testify against his father Dr. Oscar E. Ishmael 54 who is charged with manslaughter and abortion.

Judge Reis denied the request of Attorney Raymond Van Wolken, ten that the youth be placed in custody of his mother pending a decision of the state supreme court on an appeal. He overruled Van Wolken's claim that Judge Proctor did not have the power to sentence the youth for contempt.

The youth refused at a preliminary hearing to testify where he drove his father in an automobile May 30 the day the state charges Dr. Ishmael visited at the home of Mrs. Roy E. Winch in Arena, Wis.

Winch the state charges, did not seem disposed to make a grave issue of the incident.

Three Arrested on Charges of Theft In Alleged Swindle

Hollywood—(AP)—Two officers of the National Talent Pictures corporation and the wife of one of them were held on charges of grand theft and bunco today while police questioned a mother of would-be child screen stars brought here as winner of contests in various parts of the country.

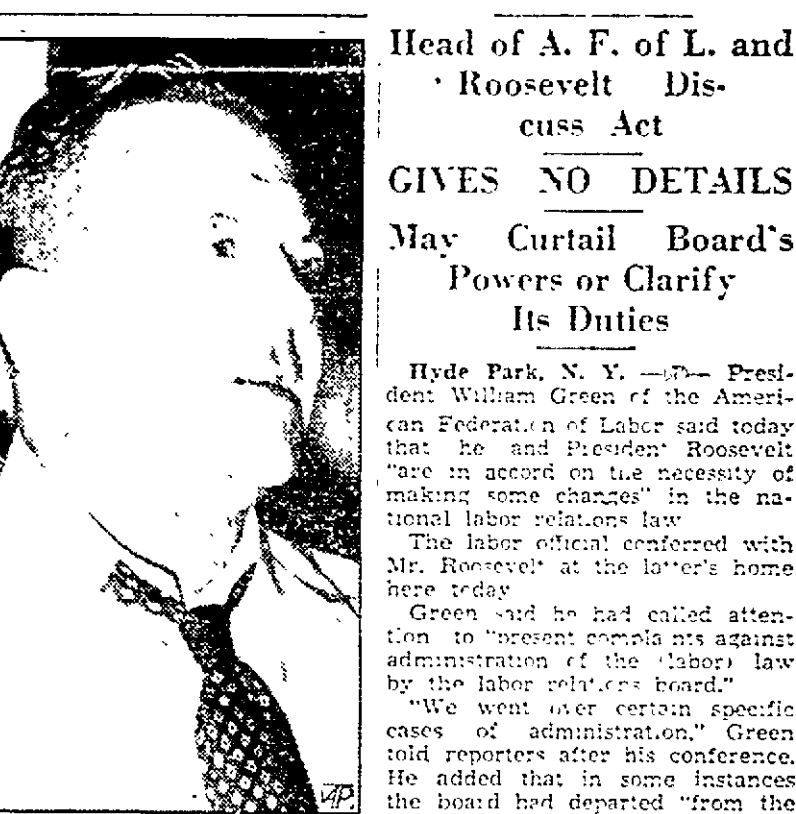

Lieutenant Merle B. Swan of the Los Angeles police central bunco squad said it appeared operators of the concern had extended "to every state and into Canada."

He said at least $100,000 in franchises for local dancing schools, costumes and other fees apparently was involved.

Held under $500 bonds each for arraignment Aug. 26 were Ira C. Overdorff, 55, president of the corporation, his wife, Myrtle, 53, and Eddie Rose, 32, vice president of the concern and publisher of a house organ.

Swan said scores of mothers had come here in the last few weeks with child-winners of talent contests. They complained they had been charged large sums for costumes and other items which they were told were necessary for the children were to obtain film roles. Swan declared, but the promised roles did not materialize.

President for 'Some Changes' In Labor Law

Head of A. F. of L. and Roosevelt Discuss Act

GIVES NO DETAILS May Curtail Board's Powers or Clarify Its Duties

Hyde Park, N. Y.—(AP)—President William Green of the American Federation of Labor said today that he and President Roosevelt "are in accord on the necessity of making some changes" in the national labor relations law.

The labor official conferred with Mr. Roosevelt at the latter's home here today.

Green said he had called attention to "present complaints against administration of the (labor) law by the labor relations board."

"We went over certain specific cases of administration," Green said, "and in accord on the necessity of making some changes in the law to overcome the objections we (the A. F. of L.) have offered regarding the board's administration."

Green said that one of his complaints to Mr. Roosevelt had dealt with the labor situation in Ambler, Pa. There, he asserted, the N. L. R. B. had intervened at the instigation of the Committee for Industrial Organization and had ordered an A. F. of L. contract set aside.

He said a federal court overrode the board's decision, but that the board, issuing the court ruling, ordered an election by the workers. The A. F. of L. won the election, Green said.

The labor official said he had told Mr. Roosevelt that there was no necessity for such proceedings.

Asked whether he had discussed with Mr. Roosevelt the latter's forthcoming decision on whether to reappoint Donald W. Smith to labor board, Green replied affirmatively.

Smith's term will expire Aug. 27. Green declined to be pinned down on whether he had expressed opposition to Smith, and said he had submitted no candidate for the appointment.

Woman Is Shot on Hollywood Street Report Suspect Believed Victim Had Broken Up His Home

Hollywood—(AP)—A young electrician's belief that another woman's domination of his wife was responsible for his broken home was blamed by police today in the spectacular Hollywood boulevard shooting of Mrs. Anita Krueger, wife of Karl Krueger, symphony conductor.

While Mrs. Krueger lay in Good Samaritan hospital, her condition deemed as critical, police questioned Charles E. McDonald, 30, husband of Frances McDonald, Mrs. Krueger's maid.

Detectives said McDonald confessed to firing the two shots which struck the former symphony society matron in the arm for the safety of a dancing studio where her 5-year-old daughter, Theresa, was awaiting her.

The shooting occurred at a busy boulevard intersection here yesterday, in view of scores of terrified pedestrians who hurried for cover.

The McDonalds have been in Hollywood for several months and fight a custody of their daughter Mrs. McDonald's claim that she, 22, as a minor, was married and threatened to marry a man who had seduced her.

An official inquiry was started though the government did not seem disposed to make a grave issue of the incident.

Secret Organization Enables Over 1,000 Austrian Jews to Reach Border of Switzerland

Berlin—(AP)—More than 1,000 Austrian Jews, it was estimated today, have been smuggled into Switzerland the last month by modern versions of the Scarlet Pimpernel and the underground railway.

Three hundred Swiss frontier guards are trying to cope with the problem and all available police in the northern Swiss cantons have been mobilized to help France reinforced her guards at border points. German troops, promised increased vigilance.

The migration has been helped by a secret organization of Germans and Austrians, with earlier fugitives, supplied money and shelter for fugitives on the way to the borders, much

Dutch Schultz Called Vicious Boss of Racket

Witness Tells of Intimidation: Hines Trial Receded for Weekend

New York — (U-P) — A picture of Dutch Schultz as a vicious, profane, gun-toting racket boss was left today with the jury in the trial of Tammany District Leader Jimmy Hines.

Still appearing affable after the first week of listening to charges that he served as political guard-angel for Schultz's $100,000,000 policy syndicate, Hines left the courtroom grinning yesterday as the trial was recessed for the weekend.

The last witness of the week, Alexander Pompey, one-time policy king in Harlem, had just testified that the Schultz mobsters contributed thousands of dollars in tainted racket money to election campaigns in 1933.

It was Pompey, now guarded day and night by a squad of four detectives, who said he had felt the lash of the Dutchman's venomous tongue, had seen the tough-talking gang lord draw a murderous gun out of his pocket.

Became "Banker"

Now 48 years old, prosperously dressed and gray-haired, Pompey entered the numbers business as a banker in 1930 after operating a Harlem cigar store 18 years, he testified.

In 1932, he testified, henchmen of Schultz demanded that he pay "protection" money to the Dutchman. Finally after the henchmen took him in a bullet-proof car, "heavy as a truck," to see Schultz and the gangster warned him he would be "the first Nigger I am going to make an example of in Harlem," he capitulated. He reluctantly accepted a proposition that Dutch take over the bank and pay him (Pompey) $250 a week and 40 per cent of the profits.

Pompey's testimony concluded a drama-packed week in which youthful District Attorney Dewey—a potential Republican gubernatorial candidate if he wins—accused the politically potent Hines of going on the Schultz pay roll at $500 to $1,000 a week as "fixer."

Ihlenfeldt Opens Primary Campaign

Offers Plan of Loaning Money to Co-operative Industries

Milwaukee — (U-P) — Opening his campaign for the Democratic nomination for governor at state fair park today, Edward Ihlenfeldt, West Allis businessman, said his plan of loaning money to co-operative industries would relieve unemployment, diminish strikes and induce lower consumer prices for the state.

Ihlenfeldt declared the unemployed would band themselves together into co-operative industries of five or more, and the state then would loan them working capital from a fund to be set up for that purpose.

"Big industries," he added, "will attempt to keep their men employed and not allow them to strike for fear of having them as competitors. With new industries springing up to produce commodities, we will have more goods, and will be able to sell the consumer for less."

"These new industries will reduce the taxes on other property by increasing the valuation of the property in the state."

Henry Attacks Salary Boosts

Claims Wage Increases Ordered to Get Rid of Surplus Tax Money

Ashland, Wis. — (U-P) — Robert K. Henry, Republican-Democratic coalition candidate for governor, declared last night that "tax" on the state treasury would continue as long as the administration in Madison thinks of nothing else but levying additional taxes and spending all that is collected.

"The last legislature passed a tax bill that was expected to bring in more money than was needed for the previous biennium," Henry said. "Evidently the administration's expenditures are to be fulfilled because a determined effort is being made to get rid of the money."

"Only recently the department heads increased the salaries of hundreds of state employees by as much as $50 to $500 a month," he said. "The average monthly WPA salary is less than the $500 a month that the employees took as increases."

Go for Joy-Ride on Railroad Hand-Car

Wilmette, Ill. — Police yesterday chased six teenage boys who took a joy-ride on a railroad hand-car.

So fast did the youths pump along that Policeman Edward Whitehead and John Hendrickson, riding in a squad car, were unable to head them off. The officers radioed ahead to nearby Kenilworth. There, a squad parked on the track.

FIGURES IN HINES TRIAL

Julius Williams (left) threw a bombshell into the trial of James J. Hines, in New York, by testifying that he was terrorized by an assistant district attorney into falsely naming Hines in connection with the policy racket run by the late Dutch Schultz. The accused attorney, Sol Gelb (right), was expected to answer Williams from the witness stand. Hines is accused of having part in the big lottery ring. Williams was jailed as a material witness, with bond set at $10,000.

The purpose of the administrative meetings, Martin said, was "to carry out and make more effective the 20-point" harmony program adopted by the international executive board in May and to "discuss ways of bringing about preferred shop contracts."

Martin called similar meetings for Indiana union leaders at Indianapolis Aug. 27 and for Wisconsin officers at Milwaukee Aug. 28.

Frankenstein, expelled vice president of the United Automobile Workers' union, said today he was optimistic over the attitude of John L. Lewis, chief of the Committee for Industrial Organization, toward the expelled union insurgent wing.

The insurgents opened a conference today with the announced purpose of unseating Homer L. Martin, international president.

Frankenstein and other members of the rebel group returned to Toledo last night from Washington, where they had conferred with Lewis.

The purpose of today's conference, Frankenstein said, was to call a rump convention for Martin's ouster.

Frankenstein, Wyndham Mortimer, and Ed Hall, the expelled vice president, and George Addes, expelled secretary-treasurer, attended the meeting.

Dlegates were from the Allis-Chalmers unit at Milwaukee, Wis. from Flint, Mich., Pontiac, Mich., Newark, Ohio, Cleveland, Ohio, and South Bend, Ind.

Peterson Hits Federal Relief Administration

Platteville, Wis. — (U-P) — James G. Peterson, candidate for governor, criticized the federal relief administration of relief in an address here last night, contending there would be less justice and waste if relief administration was under state and local governmental control.

"It is not a secret that many of those who have been aided by the federal government have not really been in need of what was done for them, and that many others have received less aid than they should have had or have received no aid at all," he said.

"This has been unavoidable under the federal relief system, as it is too much to expect that any man or group of men in Washington can know conditions in 48 states, some of them thousands of miles from Washington. If the problem were handled by the state and local governments there would be fewer of these abuses."

Charges Lawmakers In Washington Have Fallen Down on Job

Wither, Wis. — (U-P) — "Farmers of Wisconsin are not fooled by the barrage of the politician this year," Alexander Wiley of Chippewa Falls, Republican candidate for United States senator, declared in a campaign address prepared for delivery here today.

The farmers, Wiley said, "are using the old yardstick: 'By their fruits we shall judge them.'"

"I know the problem of the farmer. For 24 years I have owned and operated a farm in Barron county. The men you and I hired to look after our interests in Washington have fallen down on the job. The fruits of their acts are seen not only in a partially paralyzed butter and milk market, but in a topsy-turvy world."

"Two years ago we found the Progressives hibernating on the president's coat-tail. Then, both Bob and Phil (LaFollette) said it was a good place to tie to. They approved all the policies and said 'out, out, when the whip was cracked.'"

"Well, they right then, or are they right now, having just recently jumped off the coat tail?"

Sales Crusade Is American Way of Solving Problems

partly rural, with diversified business interests. Sales opportunities there are neither much above nor below average.

The company was interested in finding out whether a sales crusade would encourage all salespeople to greater effort and whether the "Sales Mean Jobs" theme would produce a more receptive attitude towards salesmen on the part of consumers—with more sales and more business as the result.

The chamber of commerce at Lincoln's business and industrial leaders took up the challenge and all salesmen were urged to be more aggressive in the selling of all merchandise.

The campaign in Lincoln was so successful that soon other cities sponsored similar crusades, with the "Sales Mean Jobs" slogan constantly placed before the public's eye. Wherever the crusades have been held, business and industry has responded with an awakening and the consumer have taken on a new confidence in buying.

It is that kind of a crusade, unselfish, beneficial to all, that is going on right now in Appleton and vicinity.

Benefits All

It is unselfish because there is no particular agency or company or group who will profit from it to the exclusion of others. It helps all.

If you are a salesman, the more you sell the more business you bring your company, the more money your company makes, the more work it provides for its other employees, and the more it thinks of you.

If you are a paper mill worker, an increase in sales by your company's salesmen means more assurance of unbroken employment and more wages. If you, in turn, use those increased wages to buy more clothes for your family, you have furnished the clothing store and the clothing firm that made those clothes with more business, and you have assured the employees of the clothing store and the clothing firm with more assurance of unbroken employment and more wages.

The "Sales Mean Jobs" campaign is what is known as a "natural." It can't miss.

5,000 Loyalists are Captured in Drive.

Insurgents Report

Hendaye, France (the Spanish Frontier) — (U-P) — Spanish insurgent detachments said today that 5,000 government militiamen were captured and additional thousands killed as Generalissimo Francisco Franco opened what apparently was a carefully-planned general offensive.

The insurgents attacked in force on the Ebro river front, south of Gandesa, where they reported first-line government trenches in the Pandos mountains had been occupied and the second line was being attacked today.

Bulletins from Barcelona said, however, the government lines had held against the assault and had not lost an inch.

Observers believed Franco had given orders to his field commanders to wipe out the government's Ebro salient this weekend so a combined campaign against Barcelona and Valencia could start from consolidated positions.

Insurgent military leaders confirmed that Franco himself would lead a new offensive. The generalissimo named General Juan Vigon, former chief of staff of the northern insurgent army, as chief of his personal staff.

Advance Demand For Fair Tickets Sets New Record

If Weather Conditions are Good, Last Year's Attendance May be Topped

Milwaukee — (U-P) — Wisconsin swung open the gates to its eighty-eighth state fair today, and exposition of the state's finest agricultural and industrial products.

The management reported a greater advance demand for tickets than ever before and predicted that, granted favorable weather, last year's record attendance total of 602,567 would be topped.

The fair got under way with dedication of $250,000 worth of new buildings and improvements at the fair park in suburban West Allis.

Judging in the junior fair, in which 1,200 of the state's youth are participating, followed. The exhibitors represent the 4-H clubs, Future Farmers of America, Farmers' Equity Union Juniors and Boy Scouts.

Corrigan Honored

For entertainment, visitors found bands, automobile and motorcycle stunts, a rodeo and the WLS radio barn dance company. A display of fireworks was scheduled as tonight's finale.

Tomorrow will be "Douglas Corrigan day" with the famous wrong way flyer planning to attend.

Corrigan will arrive in Milwaukee late tomorrow morning. After ceremonies in the city, including a public luncheon, he will go to the fair grounds for the afternoon and evening programs.

Two of the state's famous airmen will be on hand to greet the smiling Irishman. One is Felix Wauk of Kohler, who flew the Atlantic in 1935. Wauk was bound for the country of his ancestors, Lithuania, but was forced down in Ireland. The other is Steve Wittman, Oshkosh speed flier.

Fair Weather Is Forecast Sunday

Ideal Conditions Prevail; 81 Degrees at Noon Today

Fair weather tonight and Sunday was the cheerful note struck by the weatherman for residents of Appleton and vicinity who are planning weekend outings. Cooler temperatures were forecast tonight and tomorrow in the southeastern portion of the state.

Ideal summer weather prevailed today with a temperature of 84 degrees registered on the thermometer atop the Post-Crescent building at noon today. Maximum and minimum temperatures during the 24 hours preceding 9 o'clock this morning were 85 degrees at 4 o'clock yesterday and 70 degrees at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, according to records at the power plant of the Wisconsin Michigan Power company.

Highest and lowest temperatures in the nation yesterday were at Amarillo with 102 degrees and Yellowstone with 36 degrees, according to an Associated Press dispatch.

Says Fond du Lac Firm Violated U. S. Labor Act

Milwaukee — (U-P) — Carl Ludwig of Milwaukee, trial examiner for the national labor relations board, filed an intermediate report today finding that the Sanitary Refrigerator company of Fond du Lac had violated the national labor act.

Ludwig had recently conducted hearings on a complaint by the Steel Workers' Organizing Committee (CIO) that the company had fostered an alleged company union, the Independent Refrigerator Workers' association.

Ludwig recommended that the company reinstate two employees allegedly dismissed for union activities, rescind an order demoting another employee allegedly for the same reason, and that it recognize the CIO as collective bargaining agent and withdraw all recognition from the independent union.

Added Loans Approved For Butter Purchases

Washington — (U-P) — The agriculture department administration announced approval today of additional loans up to $7,250,000 to the Dairy Products Marketing association at Chicago for buying up to 25,000,000 pounds of butter to help stabilize dairy prices.

In June the government loaned $14,500,000 to the association for purchase of 50,000,000 pounds of butter. Through Aug. 19, the association had bought about 43,000,000 pounds.

Purchases by the association are available for resale in the open market when prices improve sufficiently to cover the purchase price, costs of handling and storage and a small additional amount.

The dairy products marketing association is a non-profit organization of producer-owned and producer-controlled regional dairy co-operative marketing associations.

Arnold Proposes Federal Agency to Take Charge of Enforcing Anti-Trust Laws

Washington — (U-P) — Assistant Attorney General Thurman Arnold wants a federal agency, similar to the securities commission in authority and extensiveness, to enforce the anti-trust laws.

This was the interpretation given by some officials to certain statements Arnold made last night in an address on anti-trust statutes.

Arnold pointed out that whereas other government divisions charged with executing major laws have many hundreds of workers, the anti-trust division of the justice department has only 90.

He made it clear he believes this force is wholly inadequate to cope with present problems of monopoly, and he called for an organization "with regional offices and a personnel sufficient to investigate and prosecute all violations."

"Forced to Take Control"

"In the recent depression," he said, "we were choked with inventories which could not be distributed. This was followed by a demand for an investigation of the monopoly practices and price policies which stopped the flow of goods by destroying the purchasing power of consumers and small business men."

"We are being forced to take control of inflexible price structures and coercions in restraint of trade today just as in 1933 we were forced to take control of the financing and marketing of securities."

Arguing for a well-staffed enforcement agency, Arnold said present personnel limitations have resulted in selective prosecution of anti-trust violations and consequent confusion over just what the laws prohibit and what they permit.

Prosecutions Need

"The clarification of the law is inextricably bound up with the efficient prosecution of all cases," he said. "The thousands of price-fixing agreements and instances of coercion of small businesses which are now unprosecuted are gradually changing this country into an industrial autocracy. Attempts to clarify the law in the abstract while violations go uncurbed are useless."

"The question before the American people is whether they want to save their competitive system. If so, it will not be done by attacking the morals of the business men who have been thrown into a 'free for all' fight without enough referees present at the battles."

Jersey Example of Successful Purge, Lawrence States

Mayor Hague Has Reasons For Friendly Attitude Toward Party

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington — Politically speaking, the eyes of the nation ought to be on New Jersey. For something has just happened there which cannot but arouse considerable curiosity.

because it is an example of successful "purge" by President Roosevelt, but at a price.

On its face the situation is peculiar. Mayor Hague of New Jersey dominates the Democratic party.

His man, Senator Milton, decides not to run for re-nomination. In his place, a 100 per cent New Dealer comes out for the nomination and Mr. Hague offers nobody in opposition. Indeed, the announcement is made from Trenton instead of Jersey City to avoid, as stated in some quarters, the "Hague tag" from being tacked on to William H. J. Ely, who has the unanimous backing of the Democratic state organization.

But why is Mr. Hague so generous? Why does a man who fights the CIO tooth and nail and tries to prevent the Wagner act from operating in Jersey City suddenly accept a candidate who is 100 per cent for the New Deal? This is a significant question, and many answers are possible.

One is that Mr. Hague bows deferentially to a greater boss than he is and avoids a fight, knowing full well that New Jersey is perhaps rather friendly to former Senator Warren Barbour, who is to be the Republican nominee and who ran away ahead of his ticket in 1932, when he was defeated by a narrow margin.

Party Assistance

Another is that Mr. Hague would like to play ball with the administration at this time for a number of reasons. For one thing, the flow of federal projects is too important to be interrupted. Also, Mr. Hague isn't especially interested in national affairs, provided he can run the state of New Jersey. If Mr. Ely is beaten and a Republican goes in, then Mayor Hague has made his record of party assistance anyway.

But is Mr. Ely a Hague man? Probably during the campaign he will have to answer that question directly, because President Roosevelt himself raised it in his own "fireside" speech of June 21 last, when he said:

"And I am concerned about the attitude of a candidate or his sponsors with respect to the rights of American citizens to assemble peaceably and to express publicly their views and opinions on important social and economic issues. There can be no constitutional democracy in any community which denies to the individual his freedom to speak and worship as he wishes. The American people will not be deceived by anyone who attempts to suppress individual liberty under the pretense of patriotism."

The paragraph undoubtedly referred to the Jersey City situation, where freedom of speech was denied Norman Thomas and where union organizers were forcibly driven from the same area. Maybe Mayor Hague thinks, and possibly Mr. Ely, the new candidate for the Democratic nomination, may think that nobody will raise the question, especially since former Senator Barbour may be expected to draw his support from some of the same conservative Republican elements which have a more or less secret sympathy for what Mayor

Fox Says State Operating Costs Could be Slashed

Charges Wisconsin Taxes Are 'Virtually Confiscatory'

Delavan, Wis. — (U-P) — Wisconsin taxes are "virtually confiscatory" and the cost of government is the highest in the state's history, Jerome F. Fox, Democratic candidate for governor, told Walworth county Democrats at a dinner meeting last night.

Cross book disbursements have increased from $80,000,000 in 1934 to $100,000,000 in 1937, but "in spite of this staggering increase," Fox declared, "no slight improvement in government service can be discovered with a microscope."

He contended a Democratic administration could reduce state government operating expenses without injury to useful state department and necessary appropriations, adding that "unless there is a curtailment of expenditures the people will soon be in rebellion against taxation which is at present virtually confiscatory."

Duffy is Speaker

Mrs. Louis N. Givan, Democratic national committeewoman and candidate for secretary of state, stressed the necessity for more liberal old age pensions.

"When the welfare of the nation and of the people is concerned," Senator F. Ryan Duffy told the Democrats, "there is only one way to get the United States senator to vote on any legislation—and that way is the people."

Duffy said: "The country was threatened with disaster before the inauguration of President Roosevelt in 1933, and it was due to his forthright action that our democratic institutions were saved."

Sectional Parade To be Feature of Labor Day Events

At Least 30 Floats Expected for Homecoming Program at New London

New London—A sectional parade encouraged by plenty of interesting cash prizes will be a big feature of the third annual Labor day homecoming of organized labor in New London Sept. 3, 4 and 5. The parade will be staged at 10:30 on the morning of Labor day.

At least 30 floats are expected and so far five union locals, a dozen business firms and industries and several organizations have promised entries and begun work. Clubs to be represented so far are the Boat Club, Motorcycle club and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Cash prizes of $20, $10 and $5 will be given for the three best floats. Children will have an opportunity to try for three prizes from $2 and less for the best doll bugs and best decorated bicycle.

An old car section will be a new and unusual feature. All entries must run under their own power and awards of $10 and $5 will be made for the oldest.

Bands Will Perform

Leading the procession will be the New London High school band. Also in the line of march will be the Nicholson band which will provide constant music at the celebration grounds at Hatten Recreation park.

The fire department and other city groups will be represented and a clown section will provide laughs. Four free acts daily on Sunday and Monday by Carmine's circus, rides, and a large array of concessions will offer entertainment at the grounds. Twenty-eight stands already have been reserved.

A big fireworks display Monday evening will close the celebration. Attractive attendance gifts will be given away each evening with the major gift presented Monday night. There will be speakers every afternoon and the committee now is seeking prominent orators.

A booster trip will be launched by a group Sunday with Marion and Scandia in the main steps on the river. Other excursions will be held later. The celebration program will be broadcast at noon daily from WTAQ at Green Bay starting Aug. 29.

Three Postponed Games on Senior League Schedule

Plywood, Lutheran No. 2 Teams in Fight for Share of First

Senior Men's League Standings:

Edison	W. 7	L. 3
Plywood	6	3
Lutheran No. 2	4	3
Lutheran No. 1	5	4
Bordens	3	6
Methodists	2	8

New London—With three postponed games still to be played, the Senior Men's league stands a 3-way race for first place between the Edison, Plywood and Lutheran Team 2. All have lost three games but the Edison team has the edge in that all its games have been played.

The fight for a first place tie or second place remains between the Plywood and Lutheran Team 2 since the Plywood defeated the Edison in a make-up game at the high school grounds Thursday evening, 12 to 10. The game went only six innings because of darkness but in the last two frames the Plywoods soaked Walter Stewart's ball past his fielders for nine runs. Clarence Kroll got two home runs for the Plywoods and Harold Roepke got one.

Arrangements have been made by team managers to play off the postponed games next week. Lutheran Team 2 has three games to make up and will play Bordens Tuesday evening and the Plywood Thursday evening. Lutheran Team 1 and the No. 2 team will tangle at a later date.

Branch Managers End Conference At Clintonville

95 Persons Attend Concluding Banquet at Hotel Marson

Clintonville—The eleventh annual conference of branch managers of the Four Wheel Drive Auto company was concluded with a banquet at Hotel Marson Thursday evening. Ninety-five were present for the affair, this number including officials of the firm and a number of office employees.

Colonel Willard Chevalier, vice president and publisher of Business Week, gave the principal address of the evening. For years he edited the construction magazine, Engineering News-Record.

The conference began Monday morning when the Rev. W. O. Speckhard gave the opening address. The local pastor stressed the importance of occupying each day profitably and to make better future business and personal relations by beginning today.

Other speakers at the various conference sessions were Max Stieg, a director of the firm and cashier of the Danyman's State bank, whose subject was "Why Business Institutions Fail," Joe Heil of the Heil Manufacturing company of Milwaukee, Charles Gross, an engineer of the Evans Products company of Detroit, and E. H. Schmeidler, general manager of the Sales Analysis Institute, Chicago.

On Wednesday afternoon, the branch managers and other FWD officials enjoyed a golfing party at Riverside club near Clintonville.

Fire Fighters to Hold Their Annual Outing Tomorrow

New Features Arranged for Annual Fair at Weyauwega

Kimberly Department to Have Picnic at Wolf River Resort

Kimberly—The Kimberly firemen will hold their annual picnic at Orhula, on the Wolf river, Sunday. The organization will gather at the fire station early Sunday morning and leave about 8:30.

Entertainment will include softball, horseshoe pitching, swimming and card playing. New members in the department also will be initiated.

Dinner and supper will be served on the grounds by the cook, Matt Busch. Fire alarms Sunday will be answered by the Little Chute Fire department. Guests at the outing will be the police and fire commission and Chief of Police John Benard. James Gaffney will be the acting chief of police Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Van Elzen and son left Saturday morning for Minneapolis, Minn., where they will spend a week's vacation.

Ideal weather permitted a large turnout to attend the band concert Thursday evening at the park. Featured on the program was the overture "Woodland." Other numbers were "Bridal Rose," "Spot Light," "Guard Mount" and the "Merry Widow Waltz." Marches played were "Interplay," "Conquero," "Banum and Bailey's Favorite," "Robbins Brothers" and "Olympia Hippodrome."

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Van Wycken town of Vandenberg, entertained a number of guests at their home Thursday evening. Cards were played after which refreshments were served.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Hietpas and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Vanden Hei, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baumgart, Mr. and Mrs. John Heiting, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Lammers and daughter, Little Chute.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Vanden Heuvel, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sander, John Van Lankveld and Weyauwega, political speeches each day by Sen. Vern La Roonne, Kaukauna, and Alexander Wilcox, Duff Valley league baseball games on Saturday and Sunday.

Weyauwega—A number of entirely new features will be presented at the Waupaca County Fair at Weyauwega, Aug. 26 to 28. Nearly all of them have been included in the program by fair officials because of a popular demand.

First of all there will be a horse-pulling contest, an event of never failing thrills for every horse lover who returns a rest for any bit of competitive endeavor. This feature is scheduled at 1:30 Saturday afternoon in front of the grandstand. Prizes amounting to $120 in cash will be awarded to the winning teams $60 in each of two classes. The horses will be divided into two divisions, those weighing more than 2,000 pounds, and those weighing less than 2,000 pounds.

The event will be conducted under rules and regulations set down by the department of agriculture at the University of Wisconsin. One of those intricate machines, the dynamometer, has been secured. It measures accurately and exactly the pulling power of each team. Entries in this contest are being received by H. W. Glocke, secretary.

Then there is the amateur contest in front of the grandstand on Friday afternoon, Aug. 26, in which 16 acts, survivors of an elimination contest that has been carried on all summer, will compete for cash prizes amounting to $50. Every performer in each of these acts is a boy or girl living within the radius that comprises Waupaca county fair territory.

An applause meter will determine accurately the amount of hand clapping received by each contestant, and it will be upon this basis that prizes will be awarded. Winner of first place will receive $20, second place $10, third $5, fourth $3, and the next twelve $1 each.

The third new feature at the fair is a specially arranged children's day program on Friday, Aug. 25. Children under 12 years of age are always welcome on the grounds free of charge but this year on Friday afternoon and evening some surprises await every boy and girl under 12 years of age.

These events are, of course, in addition to the regular stage program of circus acts. The Badger State Barn dance with Loeck Mountain Mary the RFD Electrical show, the conservation display the 4-H club and junior fair exhibits, the appearance of the St. Mary's High School band of Menominee and of high school bands from New London, Marion, Manawa and Weyauwega, political speeches each day by Sen. Vern La Roonne, Kaukauna, and Alexander Wilcox, Duff Valley league baseball games on Saturday and Sunday.

Ekern Wants Nation To Develop Market For Dairy Products

Manitowish —(P)— Declaring an enormous potential market for dairy products exists in the United States, Lieutenant Governor Herman I. Ekern, candidate for the Progressive nomination for United States senator, said today the sensible policy would be to develop this market rather than cut down milk production.

He recalled that milk produced in Wisconsin in 1929 was worth $220,000,000, in 1932 it was worth $270,000,000, and in 1936 it has risen again to $170,000,000.

"Now we have a new slump despite great efforts to help the dairy farmers," he said. "It would seem these efforts have not been successful. We must not forget that Wisconsin leads all other states in milk production. We should maintain that standard."

Ekern said the per capita consumption of butter annually in this country is 17 pounds, while in Canada it is 31 pounds, in England 22 pounds and Belgium 21 pounds.

"The state and national government should direct their vast resources at developing the home market," he said. "An educational program alone would be of enormous value. It is proving successful in Wisconsin today. Think what could be accomplished with the full force of the national government behind such a campaign."

Two Motorists Plead Guilty of Speeding

Seventy dollars also were spent for burials during the July. This amount is not included in the report.

Heil Is Pleased With Republican Enthusiasm

Milwaukee —(P)— Julius P. Heil, home from a strenuous speaking trip, expressed today over the way his campaign was going and confidence he would win the Republican nomination for governor.

"I cannot help but notice the enthusiasm of the Republican committee everywhere I have been and the general feeling among the rank and file that this is a Republican year," Heil said.

"I have been most impressed with the attitude shown for the need of coordination between the farmer, the working man, the big and little business man in an effort to bring back confidence."

"If I accomplish nothing else as governor, I hope to bring about a cooperative effort on the part of all the varied branches of our economic society into a coordinated working unit that will return our state to its rightful place in the nation."

"When this is accomplished, all will benefit."

Committee to Consider Hiring Traffic Officer

Selection of a fifth motorcycle officer for the county traffic squad for a 3-month period is expected to be considered by the county highway committee Monday at the courthouse. There are 40 applications on file and several new ones have been made since the county board this week authorized the hiring of another officer.

Because county traffic squad members will give safety talks in the county schools under a new safety program endorsed by the county board, a fifth officer was asked by the committee.

Large Crowd on Hand in Chicago To Greet Flier

Corrigan Given Tumultuous Welcome at Municipal Airport

Chicago —(P)— Douglas Corrigan, hero of the famous aviation detour, fluttered into the midst of a whacking Irish welcome at the municipal airport today.

The diminutive flier landed from Indianapolis a few minutes before 11 o'clock a. m. C.S.T., to be greeted by yells from an estimated crowd of 10,000 to 15,000.

Mayor Edward J. Kelly and a distinguished entourage hailed Corrigan, who was escorted through the throng to the relative safety of a hangar.

Wearing his familiar jacket, dark-checked pants and a green tie against a shirt that did not match, the aviator spoke briefly into a microphone.

"His plans? None. 'I do whatever comes up. One day ahead is all I can figure. Tomorrow I am going to Milwaukee."

"His craze? 'I am going to keep it.'"

City Easy to Find
The flight to Chicago? "I had no trouble finding the city. Once I spotted the lake it was easy."

Lusty as was the welcome at the airport, policemen said the only violence was emotional. Some 200 to 300 amateur camera men broke through the police lines, but the officers outnumbered the snaphooters about two to one, and Corrigan was snatched from the onrush.

Mayor Kelly's committee, which included Merrill C. Meigs, chairman of the Chicago Aero commission and Barnett Hodges, corporation counsel and secretary of Chicago's New Century committee, encountered some difficulty reaching the flier but a spearhead of Police Captain John Stege's men finally brought the greeters and the greeted together without undue trouble.

Perched high in the rear of an automobile, Corrigan led a parade from the airport to Congress street plaza on Michigan avenue, the starting point of the loop reception.

St. Louis Man Faces Bogus Check Charge

William J. Williams, 39, St. Louis, Mo., was charged with attempting to pass a forged check when he appeared before Judge Thomas H. Ryan in municipal court this morning, and preliminary hearing was set for 2 o'clock next Friday afternoon. He is being held at the county jail in lieu of $500 bond.

Williams was arrested by Green Bay authorities after Appleton police put out a radio call for him. Yesterday a man appeared at a local tavern and attempted to cash a check for $32.40. It was drawn on a local bank and was endorsed with the name of another local business place. Search was started for Williams after the incident was reported to police.

Chief Prim said this morning that two checks, for $11.40 and $20.80, allegedly signed by Williams were passed at local taverns yesterday and that additional charges may be brought against the defendant.

Does Unto Others What Others Did Unto Him

Chicago —(P)— Charles Decker, 14, on Lake Michigan last night in his outboard cruiser, saw distress flares.

He found the speedboat, Delaware, with four women and five men aboard her, disabled after striking a log. Making three trips, he brought all a mile and a half to shore.

Two weeks before, Decker's boat had tipped over at nearly the same location. It was the Delaware which came to his assistance.

Pope May Enter November Race As Independent

Idaho Senator Declares He Has Received Many Requests to Run

Washington —(P)— Senator Pope (D-Idaho), whose defeat in the recent Idaho Democratic primary was a major setback and surprise for the administration, said today he was considering entering the November election as an independent candidate.

The Idaho senator, an ardent supporter of President Roosevelt's program, declared he had received more than a thousand letters and numerous telegrams and telephone calls urging him to run.

He added in an interview that he probably would make up his mind within the next few weeks after consulting with officials here and Democratic leaders in Idaho.

Since returning here, Pope has talked with Secretary Wallace and other top-ranking administration officials.

His intimates said he had been promised support, if he runs as an independent, by Wallace, Secretary Ickes and Senator Norris (R-Nebr.) among others.

Friends of the senator attributed his defeat to participation of Republicans in the Idaho Democratic primary.

Pope received about 39,500 primary votes to 42,500 for Representative D. Worth Clark, the winner, who campaigned as a conservative Democrat.

Because the Roosevelt administration has always polled greater strength in final elections than in primaries in Idaho, Pope supporters contend he would have an excellent chance in a three-cornered election contest with Clark and Donald Callahan, Republican nominee for the senate.

Lawrence Professor Publishes Textbook

A volume entitled "Selections From Latin Prose and Verse," designed for college freshmen who have studied Latin for four years in high school, has been published by Dr. Arthur H. Weston, professor of Latin and Greek at Lawrence college.

The book contains a prologue, "On Reading of Latin," in which the author urges the student of Latin to understand the behaviour of the language, "meet the writer half way," and adapt himself to the writer's mode of expression. The book of 388 pages is illustrated with pictures and maps which facilitate Latin studies.

Take Applications for Fifth Traffic Officer

Applications for a fifth Outagamie county traffic officer will be taken by the county highway committee until 9:30 Monday morning, according to F. R. Appleton, highway commissioner. The age limit is from 25 to 35 years. The examination will take place at 10 o'clock in the morning. A fifth officer is to be added to the force for September, October and November.

FOR MEMORY IS SHORT

Announcement of the probable postponement of its inquiry into the TVA by the congressional committee is a reminder of the splendidly synchronized machine the national administration operates.

In the face of an election its work becomes as well oiled as the moving parts of a marine engine. And to that end it moves usually in two directions.

First it bangs the door so the public may not be reminded of its own shortcomings; and next it invites the voter to play Tom the Peep with it on what it calls its opponents.

Either the TVA inquiry will be slowed down, stopped, or directed into uninteresting and innocent fields. But there will be more. Mr. Lewis will hear a whisper. It will tell him to postpone organizing farm-workers into the CIO until after the election. For there are too many farmers who vote. He will also be directed to gag Bridges and other leading Red lieutenants: since there must be a minimum of public disturbance to interfere with the charms of "Happy Days."

At every spot in the administration's record that has become discolored talcum will be brushed on generously to conceal, soothing syrup will be employed just as generously to soften harsh consequences, and various purposes of good appearance will be indicated by the presentation of first steps even when it is known that further ones cannot be taken.

For an election is in sight and we are due for model government for anything from four to eight weeks.

It is all like jollyng up a fellow to get him to endorse a note.

But it works.

THE SURVIVORS LOSE

In Outagamie county last week, an automobile carrying six persons, all members of one family, was involved in an accident with a truck. Two survived this crash. They are two youngsters who, when the shock and wounds have disappeared, must face life as orphans. Their parents died in the wreck.

This week in Brown county, an automobile carrying four persons, of whom three were members of one family, was involved in an accident with a truck. Two survived this crash. They are two youngsters, one of whom, when the shock and wounds have disappeared, must face life as an orphan. His parents died in the wreck.

The grim coincidence is at once apparent when the tragedies are viewed side by side, but the story goes beyond this point. It goes even beyond the realization that six more lives have been lost in the war of our highways and streets.

It centers on an age-old truism that it is the survivors who live to suffer. The dead are beyond the realm of human woes.

Sometimes, of course, these orphaned boys will carry on and be helped to manhood, but their lives have been irreparably altered by man-made catastrophes that need not have happened.

THE NORTH SHORE QUILTS

More than sentiment is disturbed at the suspension of operations of the North Shore Line with 1300 now idle employees.

The line is in receivership. Ordinarily that means it lacks the strength to stand on its own legs. Those operating it said they must cut wages 15 per cent. Whether a strike or lockout was the technical result may be important in some other phase of the controversy but at this time it is not of great consequence.

The wages paid the 1300 are not unimportant. They range from 65 cents an hour received by brakemen and 78 by motormen to 15 and 10 cents an hour for machine shop and firemen. Colonel Sprague, the receiver, made a statement that is likewise interesting and also important. He declared:

"I have to close. I am not sure the track and the cash that isn't in the till. No, an I. Harry Hopkins or Harold Hicks to produce it out of a hat."

Whatever else may be said about a railroad that is down and 1300 well paid employees at home, this much is sure—the railroad wouldn't be down and the 1300 employees wouldn't be home if the company were prosperous.

And another thing is equally sure: that when everyone from the injured person with an ambulance chasing lawyer to the "statesman" with a new tax bill takes a whack at a railroad, even though it be located in a thickly populated community, it is bound to sicken, languish and finally expire under such concerted bludgeoning.

THE OLD FORMULA

The trial of the debonair Jimmy Hines at New York is attracting attention but merely because of the quantity of swag.

Otherwise the game, the plan, the cheat, the controlled prosecutor and the methods of fooling the public are commonplace to the cloying fringe of weariness.

The accused leader, the Big Shot, the one who made gambling safe for all the many small fry, knew his groceries right down to prunes and potatoes. He is quoted as saying about Dewey's predecessor, "We want Dodge as District Attorney because he is stupid, respectable, and our man." And so a thousand voices began declaring Dodge a great fellow, a fine citizen, a dependable defender of the faith; and a thousand gamblers' pockets yielded up dough to continue the propaganda in every conceivable form. Dodge was elected and the gang found no obstructions on the road to millions.

We repeat, it is an old formula. The gamblers realize their shortcomings. They engage a smart though corrupt man to operate the levers in the wheel-house. The smart man knows that without the public prosecutor he is helpless and that with him it is a cinch.

The people do not think as straight as that. They want the racket and outlawry stopped but they do not know who is the king-pin. They are disorganized, oftentimes bewildered, occasionally frantic. When the prosecutor fails them they are without a pilot.

But the course of professional or commercialized gambling as disclosed by Mr. Dewey's investigation is worth another long squint since it is practically the same the world over, a fraud and a humbug without a decent feature nor an honorable point.

In the numbers racket at New York the chances consisted of tickets upon which were printed certain numerals, the winning number to depend upon the number of shares traded upon the Stock Exchange that day and when the Exchange quit printing figures to thwart the gang they switched to the pari-mutuel betting figures at certain race tracks. They needed publicly announced figures from some independent agency in order to convince the million goofs or suckers that the thing was on the square, a real case of the perfect up-and-up.

Although this particular racket ran to nearly $2,000,000 a month, of which 60 per cent was profit if run on the square, the gang suddenly made up its mind that it should win the prizes every day, too, corrupted the race track secretary to alter the last three figures of the publicly announced bettings and saw to it that the proper tickets were retained in its custody.

Perhaps it was nothing more than the suckers deserved. We merely record the facts. The gentlemen who sleep until noon and never sweat except in a Turkish bath merely took it all.

That there is nothing much new under the sun is peculiarly adaptable to gambling. To make big money the prosecutor must be controlled. And when in big money and perfect masters of the situation the gamblers will so rig the machinery as to take the inlays out of your teeth.

A RARE EVENT

Since the plebiscite in Paraguay a continuation of the war of that country with Bolivia seems more remote than ever; and although the final steps to insure continued peace depend upon further conferences and transactions the odds are high in its favor.

Paraguay isn't big. Neither is Bolivia. Together they hold but a small percentage of the lands in the Western Hemisphere and their population is of little consequence. Their standards of living are not high. The civilization they have embraced is nothing to brag about. Even together it could hardly be said they have advanced the cause of humanity in any particular.

But all that was yesterday.

With peace practically assured after a hatred that has lasted about a hundred years, embroiled the countries in bitter warfare and resulted in the violent death of no less than a million of their people, they have either risen or been lifted to unusual heights.

For they have turned their backs upon the black past with its equally dark savagery. With a bone to fight over equally as attractive as Alsace-Lorraine, the Polish Corridor, the boundary lines of old Bohemia or some hills in far off Manchukuo the rest of the Western Hemisphere by diligent work, patient inquiry and kind sympathy have finally brought these nations and their people to the point where they are resolutely turning from the battlefield as futile. They have compromised.

Fifty years from now their descendants will know nothing of the details of that compromise but they will know that their nations have been at peace. The bitter seed of hatred will not in the meantime be sown. A procedure will have been adopted which will be followed again.

We must not mistake the significance of this event. It is a glorious record for the Western Hemisphere.

During hot weather cows may drink 80 per cent more water than usual. Water is used in cooling the body and enables the cow to tolerate the heat better.

Canadian Government fish hatcheries restocked lakes and streams throughout the Dominion with nearly 61,822,000 fish eggs, fry and older fish during 1937.

Three new peach varieties bred at the New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station, Rutgers University, were named "Triagem," "Summercrest" and "Afterglow."

DALE HARRISON'S In Old New York

New York—Laughs come high. As we get older things aren't quite so funny. Gags fall flat. The run-of-mine funny stories produce little more than smiles.

That's why funny men command fabulous wages. There are so few of them.

For my money, the funniest fellow in New York—I mean night after night, with never a let down—is Jack White, ex-Philadelphian who now is in his third year of rib-tickling at his own club on that nightmare of crocstown thoroughfares, 52nd Street.

White doesn't start getting funny until 12:30 a. m. for the sophisticates who treasure his type of humor don't get around much earlier. He does another show at 3:30 a. m., which attracts men and women of the theater, who generally are very hard to make laugh.

Nobody knows what's going to happen when White starts. White least of all. It is a mad mélange, often bawdy, frequently coarse, but invariably smart.

White has two comedy aides—Pat Harrington, from Canada, and Frankie Hyers. This mad trio keep up a running rattle of comment, ad libbing delightfully, kidding the customers, themselves and everybody.

The other night a tall customer was being ribbed by White, and became angry. He arose, all six feet of him, and said: "I don't like your attitude." Quick as lightning came the ad lib rejoinder from Hyers: "And we don't like your attitude!" This, in my humble opinion, is the cream of fun, because it is spontaneous, fast and sharp.

Pat Harrington told me that about 65 per cent of their performance is ad libbing. Famous comedians seldom attempt to banter with White more than once, for the White-Harrington-Hyers combination has repeatedly come off best in these battles of comedians.

White is a rabid fan of the New York Giants. Whenever the Giants lose a game a sign is posted over the orchestra. It says: "No game today."

The art of ad libbing is almost a lost one. Perhaps that is why White and his trigger-brained confederates are able to evoke laughter from even such professional sourpusses as J. Fred Allen, a master of ad libbing, is the only other comedian I know of who has a definite talent in that direction. Jimmy Walker, in his mayoral days, was famous for spontaneous quips. There aren't many others. Smart ad libbing is as rare as radium.

The fast-thinking Pat Harrington, who contributes so largely to White's success, has been a performer in night clubs for more than ten years, yet by his own admission is not a night clubber.

"People get an idea that night club actors and actresses lead a gay life, being up to all hours and going places and meeting people. That's a laugh. In the three years I have been working here with Jack I haven't been to a single night club."

"Why? That's easy. I'm married and have a home. Just because I make my living in night clubs is no sign that I live differently than anyone else. When I'm through work, I go home. It never occurs to my wife or me to seek entertainment by going to night spots. It's a good thing other people don't have the same slant, or nobody would come to see White; and then where would I be?"

The triumphant return of Doug Corrigan, ocean hopper, was almost like St. Patrick's Day in the enthusiasm it engendered among the New York Irish.

George Binns, a taphouse proprietor, paid tribute to the occasion by inventing a new drink which he called the "airplane spin," and which he insisted excluded alcoholic the dynamic Corrigan qualities. Its manufacture was simple, though startling—equal portions of Irish whiskey and green creme de menthe.

Looking Backward

10 YEARS AGO

Saturday, Aug. 18, 1928
H. S. Furringer, who had recently retired after working in the paper making business for 50 years, had gone to New York from where he was to sail for Europe Aug. 25 on the Majestic. He planned to visit England, France and Germany.

F. F. Wheeler, president of the Kiwanis club, was to speak on city zoning at the regular meeting of the Lions club at the Conway hotel Monday noon.

An addition was being built at the Sunnyside schoolhouse on the Hortonville road and was to be completed by the opening of school. Martin Fink, route 3, Appleton, was doing the work. Members of the building committee were John Eichstadt, chairman, August Schroeder and Edwin Kreil.

Seven members of the Kimberly band when it was organized 18 years previous were still members of the organization and were to play in concerts at the DePere band festival Sunday. The veterans were John Groen, Cornelius Vanderkerk, Martin Hanezner, Henry Vandenberg, Edgar L. O. Mauthe, Walter Van Epern and William Van Daelwyk.

25 YEARS AGO

Saturday, Aug. 23, 1913
Extensive improvements were being made at the Theta Phi fraternity house at the corner of Alton and Law streets.

An organized effort was being made in every city in the state where there was a paid fire department to bring about a shorter working day for members of the department.

Mrs. Katherine Ramsay entertained a group of ladies at a luncheon at her home on E. College avenue.

J. Elmer Lehr, Milwaukee, formerly of Appleton, was elected to head the National Fraternal union of the state at the convention in session here the previous day.

Miss Alberta Ames, former teacher at the First ward school, left the previous day for Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands, where she had accepted government position as teacher. Her brother-in-law, Arthur Hansen, a former Lawrence student, had a position as chemical engineer there.

A Verse for Today

By Anne Campbell

MOTHER BIRD

With grave preoccupation, she regards the babies in her nest. Upon the edge, perched anxiously. She ruffles her maternal breast.

I can see three small mouths agape: The flutter of a tiny wing! They are too feeble to escape. The homestead nest's frail hampering.

Her task is just the same as mine. She has three eager mouths to feed. The elm tree spreads its green design. With strength and comfort for our need.

I only hope I may be wise, As she is wise, and never say One word when, under clouded skies, I watch my babies fly away! (Copyright, 1936)

A Bystander In Washington

BY PRESTON GROVER

Washington — For many months the Netherlands East Indies, that vast Dutch territory south of China and centering on Java, has been persistently buying military airplanes and other war supplies from the United States.

Each month the totals have been recorded by the State Department which administers the arms export licensing act, along with the totals of other foreign sales. They show that this internationally obscure region has bought more war planes than perhaps any other country except those actually at war, China and Japan.

Anyone with a smattering of geographical and military knowledge could have surmised an explanation. The islands, rich agriculturally and tremendously wealthy in oil, are nearer Japan than some parts of China. They lie in a scattered huddle southward from China across the equator.

The total population is 60,000,000 of which 45,000,000 are sardined on the island of Java, leaving the vast remainder not thickly populated—just a huge undeveloped tropical empire.

Not until recently has there come to us a first hand opportunity to learn what residents of this rich tropical commonwealth think of their situation, but the opportunity has come and the result is communicated here.

Looks To Britain
Beginning early in the thirties there was a feeling of alarm among the Netherlands Indies at the aggressive attitude of Japan in the Far East. This vast territory is subject to tiny Holland, although it is a hundred times as large and its population several times as great. But obviously it could not look to Holland for protection against a major first line power in the Pacific.

Instead, it has looked for years to Great Britain for protection, just as has Holland in Europe. English trade, in return, has exacted favorable treatment in these Indies as a sort of quid pro quo for the protection. It was not official but expected. It riled the Dutch. Further the British attitude of "hands off" displayed when Japan first began sweeping in on China in 1931 and later, gave impetus to the Dutch Indies' desire to provide more of their own defense.

They began buying a few bombing planes. Obviously this was the best protection for a territory sprawled in big and little islands over an oceanic zone far larger than the United States.

The buying took on some impetus in 1934 and 1935 and then there arose, in May of 1936, a strange crisis. Early that month there came a report to Dutch East Indies' officials that a Japanese fleet of considerable size had left under sealed orders and was bound for a surprise invasion of this rich territory to seize a desperately-needed source of oil.

Instantly, a war-like censorship was imposed upon the whole zone and such land forces as the Dutch could muster were mobilized virtually to war status. That lasted for 30 days. No Japanese fleet ever reached the Indies and the basis of the report has not been learned by our informants.

Making It Tough

Scarcely a word of the exciting crisis leaked out then—little since. But since that event these Far Eastern possessions of the Netherlands have been buying extensively of the best bombers this country could supply.

Our information is that approximately 60 bombers have been purchased and delivered from the United States, while about 40 bombers, including some of sea plane type, have been bought in Germany and Holland. Travelers have seen them being carried eastward, some loaded clumsily on the decks of general cargo vessels.

Of course, any wise Dutchman in the Indies would agree that even now it is mainly dependent for protection upon British forces at Singapore which reaches right across the Dutch possessions. But the idea of the planes and reorganized land forces is to make it so costly to invade the islands that any foe will be discouraged from trying.

Scavenger Hunt Held

At Party at Marion

Marion — Mr. and Mrs. Roy Utormark of Oconto and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Utormark were dinner guests Thursday at the Forrest Utormark home.

Mrs. Fay Miller and children Kay and King are visiting at the Lacy and Spiegel homes.

A scavenger hunt was held at the party Mrs. Herman Spiegel gave Thursday evening in honor of Ruth Leiske of Ripon and Evelyn Spitzberger of Oshkosh. Richard Devay and Ruby Wexel won prizes for bringing home the most articles.

Mrs. John Lacy and Mrs. Herman Spiegel were at Milwaukee Wednesday, where they visited Germaine Lacy who is in nurse's training in that city.

Mrs. Charles Halpog and daughter Mae returned home Thursday after a week's visit with relatives in Buffalo, N. Y.

Your Birthday

"LEO"

If August 21 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10 a. m. until noon; from 4 to 6 p. m., and from 8 to 10 p. m. The danger periods are from 8 to 10 a. m.; from 6 to 8 p. m. and from 10 a. m. until mid-night.

You may find most of your friends rather serious minded, today, with their sense of humor gone astray, so be careful how you joke or make jocular remarks. There is apt to prevail in any inclination not to indulge in any strenuous kind of physical exercise, so avoid trying to force anyone into doing anything requiring a lot of exertion on their part. This is a good day to refrain from doing any kind of surmising, for guessing is liable to get many people into trouble. Be careful not to break any promise, for confidence once destroyed will, in all probability, prove very difficult to regain. Good intentions will not get you very far, this day, for it will be deeds and actions that in all likelihood, are going to count. Married and engaged couples, as well as those who have discovered their matrimonial dreams are about to become true, want to abstain from indulging in unkind comments, particularly, if the discussion involves any question of personal habits.

If a woman and August 21 is your birthday, you ought to have a strong money-making instinct. You are probably very much interested in work of a literary nature, or some artistic line of endeavor. Be careful about taking speculative chances, for a desire to get rich over night, costs many people born on this date, plenty of money. Be prudent, cautious, and thrifty, if you expect to succeed. It will pay you to select your friends with discrimination. You are probably very versatile, and have a talent that can be developed to an extent that it might make you financially independent. As a dietician, artist, trained nurse, secretary, accountant, librarian, author, or sales agent, your achievements are likely to attract a flattering amount of attention. The child born on August 21, has usually very strong likes and

Personal Health Talks

A POUND OF PROPAGANDA

Daily in the mail comes a pound of propaganda, most of it resembling as nearly as possible bona fide copy which a newspaper correspondent might turn in, some of it especially prepared to get by a medical or health editor if any, and some being so raw that one wonders whether any of it ever gets into print. The last type is exemplified in a fake news bulletin describing a "New Invention" that not only reveals the cause of obscure disease but uncannily eradicates the disease from the system, no matter whether it be tuberculosis, insanity, cancer, catarrh or just nervous weakness.

If you use the mails to sell some simple soul sock in a non-existent mine you are likely to go to jail, but the penalty for such fraud as that perpetrated by this "New Invention" will probably amount to no more than the profit you make from a single sucker, if the government does happen to catch you in the act. The nostrum and quackery business is so firmly established in this country and it has built fortunes for so many of our now aristocratic families that Uncle Sam is extremely diffident about discouraging it even now. Believe it or not — surely somebody believes it or the vendors could never sell their product in this way — the "New Invention" can prevent coming diseases. . . . and the fake bulletin explains how: "Until disease-causes are washed into the sewer it is almost useless to speak learnedly about diets, sweat baths, adjustments, massage, mind-cure, exercises, blood-building, etc., for the condition of the bowels affect (sic) the whole man, even his religion, pocket book, temper, love, brain, disposition, and his very soul. So long as hidden disease-causes are at work, science is helpless, bowels remain constive, mind gloomy, temper ugly, moods notioneat (sic), sleep restless, joints rheumatic, stomach ulcerous, complexion bad, influence paralyzed, liver enlarged, heart fitful. . . ."

In other words you don't feel so well. If that paragraph doesn't cover your complaint, do not lose hope. There are several other paragraphs in the bulletin, and somewhere in one or another place you will find the miracle machine takes care of secondary trifles such as high blood pressure, gas pockets, intestinal parasites, dropsy, catarrh, infection, heart disease, mucus, impactions, lack of nerve force, liver complaint, headache.

Well, people can be educated — but that is a slow process. It is slow because they already know so many things which ain't so.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Wheat Germ

I like wheat germ. Wife says too much of it will hurt me. Is that correct? (B. S. A.)

Answer—I know of no injury likely to occur from eating large quantities of wheat germ. Most people would enjoy better health if they ate a few ounces of it daily.

Victim of Inefficiency

I suffered for a month, afraid to have ulcerated teeth extracted, especially as two dentists I visited at the beginning told me it was dangerous to pull them while the swelling was up. Then came your article, and I went of once to an up-to-date dentist, and had six bad teeth extracted, practically without pain, and no unpleasant after-effects. (A. H. K.)

Answer — Many quaint old-fashioned dentists still practice the dentistry of 1890. Competent dentists today endeavor to drain alveolar abscess (abscess at root of tooth) by prompt surgical intervention, saving the tooth if it is not too badly damaged by the infection, extracting it if it is beyond saving. When a fussy practitioner mumbles in his beard about the "dancer" of present day, it is a good one to avoid forever after. Likewise the tooth carpenter who hints that you have "caught cold" or that you may "take cold" in it. Such ideas are alibis for ignorance and incompetence. (Copyright, 1938)

Robinson Star of 'Dr. Clitterhouse'

Story Is of Neurological Surgeon Enkarked on Career of Crime

Edward G. Robinson has the greatest role of his career in "The Amazing Dr. Clitterhouse," which starts Saturday August 27 at the Appleton Theatre and will run for 4-days:

It is the tale of a distinguished neurological surgeon who embarks upon a career of crime in order, so he says, to study the criminals during those moments when they are perpetrating their crimes. He becomes as successful a criminal in the course of his allegedly scientific dual existence as he is a surgeon. In fact, his facile brain soon enables him to become the leader of a big time band of robbers previously dominated by Humphrey Bogart and for whom Claire Trevor is the stylishly garbed "fence."

Leading his band in one big robbery after another, the doctor seems to manifest a strange zest for his illegal enterprises until he is suddenly brought up short by arrest for the murder of Bogart, who had threatened blackmail.

Placed on trial for his life, the doctor escapes the penalty for the murder he has undoubtedly committed by a shrewd manipulation of the psychology of the jurors. It is one of the strangest denouements ever related in any film, but convincing nevertheless and highly amusing.

Other members of the impressive cast, besides those already mentioned, include Gale Page, Alben Jenkins, Donald Crisp, Henry O'Neill, John Littel, Thurston Hall, Maxie Rosenbloom, Ward Bond, Curt Bois, Bert Hanlon and Vladimir Sokoloff.

The second feature on this program is "The Gladiator," starring Joe E. Brown, June Travis and Dickie Moore. Joe, in this picture, hits a new high in hilarity which will give everyone a "laff."

Ginger, Fairbanks, Jr., In Picture at Appleton

Heading the cast of more than fifty players, Ginger Rogers and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., enact the romantic team in "Having Wonderful Time," which will open today at the Appleton Theatre for a 4-day showing.

The story is simple but human chronicle of two young people fanatically trying to grasp a few hours of blissful romance in a vacation camp.

Ginger Rogers is ideally cast as a stenographer weary of a nagging family and a sanctimonious fiancé. She meets Fairbanks, an impoverished law student working as a waiter. The nerve-racked secretary and the young man immediately clash, but their petty feuding soon turns into mutual respect and genuine love. It is the rocky progress of the romance, against various obstacles, including the fact that the student cannot afford to finance a matrimonial venture, that forms the central theme of this fast-paced screen attraction.

Ginger Rogers' role offers her dramatic as well as comedy opportunities, and in this respect it parallels her fine performance in "Stage Door." Fairbanks' characterization is a fitting sequel to his recent successes in "The Prisoner of Zenda" and "Joy of Living."

Vivid realism and appeal mark the unique cross section of life as presented by the characters found at the typical vacation resort. More than fifty speaking roles are ably portrayed by Peggy Conklin, Richard "Red" Skelton, Lucille Ball, Lee Bowman, Ann Miller, Donald Meek and many others.

The second feature on this big program is "Bulldog Drummond in Africa," starring again John Howard as "Bulldog Drummond," the famous detective.

This picture has its romantic setting in Morocco, a mysterious land of walled towns, medieval fortresses in the desert, white-robed sheiks, international intrigue and stealthy murder.

Others in the cast are Heather Angel, H. B. Warner, J. Carroll Nash, Anthony Quinn and Reginald Denny who, once again, plays Howard's nit-witted friend "Algy."

PLAY IN 'THERE'S ALWAYS A WOMAN'

"There's Always a Woman," Columbia's romantic comedy co-starring Joan Blondell and Melvyn Douglas, will bow in at the Elite Theatre next Wednesday for an engagement of 3 days. Based on a popular magazine story by Wilson Collison and adapted to the screen by Gladys Lehman, the story of "There's Always a Woman" tells of the many efforts of Joan Blondell to out-sleuth her sleuthing husband, Melvyn Douglas. Alexander Hall directed the film, which features a cast including Mary Astor, Frances Drake, Jerome Cowan and Robert Paige.

Sleeping Sickness Among Horses Spreading in Outagamie County

Sleeping sickness of horses, a disease caused by germs too small to be seen even with the aid of a microscope, is making inroads on horse herds in Outagamie county with alarming rapidity.

P. C. Swanson, agricultural agent, today urged all farmers to take precautions against the spread of the disease. Veterinarians have been busy almost day and night during the last week vaccinating horses.

One veterinarian estimated more than 20 cases in Outagamie county.

Dr. T. L. Knapstein, Greenville veterinarian, said that he was finding many cases along the Wolf river in Winnebago and Waupaca counties.

The conditions in the territories covered by him in those counties are worse than in Outagamie county, he said.

"One of the best preventative measures is to spray the animals several times a day," he said. "Horses should not be put to pasture during the night, but kept in the barn."

Swanson said that horses worked during the day should be covered with fly nets. If possible, the barns or stalls should be screened and then sprayed inside, he advised.

Seasonal In Character

Strictly seasonal in character, the disease probably is spread by blood-sucking insects. The outbreaks tend to occur during summer months and to follow a rather definite routine, according to W. D. Pounden and B. A. Beach, of the state agricultural department. Sometimes affected horses evidence a sleepy or paralyzed condition, while at other times they may be very excitable.

Two types of germs are recognized, an eastern variety found in the eastern states, and the western variety. The latter is the less severe and the losses seldom exceed 50 per cent of the number affected.

Symptoms vary greatly. Some cases exhibit but mild sleepiness, others act crazily, while some may lose consciousness rapidly. An attitude quite often observed is that of leaning in a drowsy condition against a tree or other object.

Preventative methods are along two lines, by the use of vaccines and serum, and by protecting the horse stock from blood-sucking insects. The vaccine is reasonably effective if used before cases appear in the neighborhood, early vaccination giving approximately 85 per cent protection.

Mrs. G. M. Morrissey of Chilton and Mrs. P. H. McGovern of Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. William Binsfeld entertained supper guests at their home Thursday evening. Miss Marcelle Binsfeld of Chicago was the out-of-town guest.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sherman are spending a week camping at State park, Fish Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wittmann entertained supper guests at their home Sunday. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Rose McFadden, Detroit, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. Steve Walsch, and daughter of Oneida, Mrs. Oscar Hartzheim and family of Darby and Walter Omarth and son of Manitowish.

Mr. Joseph Fritz entertained the members of his five hundred club at her home Thursday evening. Awards were received by the Mesdames Adolph Ecker, Henry Thissen, Louis Mumm and Joseph Bursk. Those present were the Mesdames Lloyd Pfeiffer, Joseph Bursk, Louis Mumm, Henry Thissen, George Geiger, Michael Kleiber and Adolph Ecker.

'Alexander's Ragtime Band' Will be on Through Tuesday

"Alexander's Ragtime Band" is even greater than they said it was. Periodically Hollywood produces a picture that stands out as a beacon along the highroad of motion picture progress, and such a picture is Irving Berlin's saga of three decades in the march of America.

With a magnificent story, gigantic cast, and superb direction, "Alexander's Ragtime Band," playing at the Rio Theatre thru Tuesday, is a picture that for years to come will be remembered as a turning point — a new trend, the utilization of memorable melodies in a dramatic story of the screen's mightiest moment.

Alice Faye was never more beautiful nor did she ever sing or perform with greater effect. Tyrone Power and Don Ameche are equally tremendous in vividly contrasting portrayals.

Ethel Merman, who comes into the story later, handles a role with her usual spirit. Jack Haley and Chuck Chandler lend a pleasant comical touch as members of the band and pals of Tyrone Power. Jean Herholt and Helen Westly take efficient care of roles assigned to them. There, too, are fine portrayals by Paul Hurst, John Caradine, Wally Vernon, Ruth Terry, and Eddie Collins.

Some indication of the popularity of "Alexander's Ragtime Band" may be gleaned from its showing at the Rio theater in New York where 40,393 persons jammed the theatre the first week of its showing there, breaking every attendance record, including those set by "What Price Glory," "Street Angel," "Cock Eve World," "Thin Ice" and "In Old Chicago."

On the same program with "Alexander's Ragtime Band" at the Rio theater, the Mauch Twins, Billy and Bobby, are featured in "Sons of the Plains." Donald Duck in "Donald's Nephews" and "Tracking the Sleeping Death," drama unearthed from the archives of medical science, are also included on the bill.

The first World's Fair in the United States was in 1853.

HEAD CAST OF FILM OPENING AUG. 27

"The Amazing Doctor Clitterhouse," starring Edward G. Robinson will be the feature attraction at the Appleton Theatre for 4-days starting Saturday, August 27. The bizarre, exciting and highly amusing story centers absorbingly around Dr. Clitterhouse, Robinson's greatest role. He is a highly respected neurological surgeon whose interest in the mental and physical reactions of criminals at the moments when they are engaged in their illegal activities becomes an obsession—seemingly a scientific obsession. The picture also features Claire Trevor, Humphrey Bogart and Allen Jenkins.

The co-feature brings up Joe E. Brown in his funniest most rollicking comedy. Brown enters Webster College and goes out for football because the Queen of the Campus, June Travis intrigues him. The professor with whom he lives has discovered a process to multiply the moral strength of humans, and he injects some of the mysterious serum into Brown, while he is sleeping. Brown becomes a national sensation on the gridiron and also wins the world's heavyweight wrestling championship. The cast includes Man Mountain Dean, Dickie Moore, Lucien Littlefield, Robert Kent and others.

CO-STAR IN 'MARIE ANTOINETTE'

Norma Shearer returns to the screen in the title role of "Marie Antoinette," with Tyrone Power as her co-star. Among the supporting stars in the cast of thousands are Gladys George, John Barrymore, George Schikraut, Henry Stephenson, Joseph Calleia, and Anita Louise. "Marie Antoinette" is still playing at the Astor theater in New York and the Carthy Circle theater in Los Angeles at $2.00 admission, but comes to the Rio theater next Friday at regular admission prices and with continuous performances.

The Dog Owner and His Dog

— BY ALLAN KERR —

DOG SHOW MECHANICS

Before discussing further the mechanics of a dog show we would like to call attention to the approach of National Dog week. The dates this year are Sept. 18 to 24 and throughout the length and breadth of the nation those days will be fittingly dedicated to focusing attention on man's closest animal friend.

From coast to coast, newspapers, radio stations, magazines and store windows are being used to broadcast the seven great objects of National Dog week.

A good home for every dog To eliminate stray dogs from the street.

To disseminate the actual truth about rabies.

To educate dog owners in their obligations both to their dogs and to the public generally.

Teach Kindness

To teach kindness and consideration by children and adults towards dogs and animals in general.

To emphasize the use of the dog as home protector, faithful companion, and useful servants of mankind.

To secure fair and just laws for dogs and their owners, but also to respect the rights of those who do not own dogs.

Slogan: Every dog needs a good home.

With these worthy purposes to spur them on the national headquarters at Chicago and dozens of local committees all over the country are striving to make the United States a better place to live in for 15,000,000 dogs.

We recently discussed how, at a dog show, the judges select the best male and female of each breed in each class, then the winners male and female, by picking the best of the class winners in each breed. And how the best of winners is chosen by determining whether the male or female is better. We also spoke of how the best of winners competes with any special entries for best of breed.

Drummond Story Coming to Elite

John Howard, Barrymore, Denny, Clive Head Cast of Picture

Diamonds, the precious stones for which men have fought, intrigued and murdered since the beginning of time, send "Bulldog Drummond" on an adventure as wild as any in his career in the new H. C. (Sapper) McNeile story, "Bulldog Drummond's Peril," which will be seen at the Elite Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, Bargain Days.

In this story of the struggle for possession of the world's first formula for the synthetic manufacture of diamonds, John Howard, playing the role of the dapper amateur sleuth, goes into the action against a powerful jewel syndicate when its leaders resort to murder and kidnapping to carry out their plans. He tracks the criminals across half of Europe and faces them in their own stronghold, when even Scotland Yard refuses to become involved in the case.

The familiar "Drummond team" of Howard, John Barrymore, Louise Campbell, Reginald Denny and E. C. Clive leads the cast, while other players include Peter Hall, the "badman" of "The Bad Time," and "Wells Fargo," Elizabeth Patterson, Nydia Westman and Michael Brooke, the Earl of Warwick.

COMING TO RIALTO

A smiling pair, just after a lesson in matri-mony, Loretta Young and Joel McCrea in "Three Blind Mice" showing at the Rialto Theatre in Kaukauna, Sunday and Monday. Plus "Men of Medicine" News, cartoon and historical mystery.

'Call of the Rockies' Is Current Attraction

Adventure and red-blooded action are contained in "Call of the Rockies," Columbia drama at the Elite Theatre today and Sunday. When the old west was young, hard-riding, straight-shooting cowboys battled it out with gun-toting rustlers and bandits and the latest Charles Starrett starring film rekindles the excitement and spirit of those pioneer days.

Tops in its own field of entertainment, "Call of the Rockies" is intended for family enjoyment. It tells of how Arn Bradford, portrayed by beautiful Iris Meredith, is forced to auction off a half interest in her ranch, to meet a note held by a crooked land dealer.

Clint Buckley, played by Starrett, acquires the property, and finds himself battling against rustlers, and other western gunmen.

Three range ballads, are sung by Don Grayson, accompanied by the Sons of the Pioneers, a unique musical quintet.

Seymour, Trucks To Get Big Tests

Former Tangles With Manitowoc Ships at Fair Grounds

LATTER MEETS KAWS

New London High Lives Will Entertain Kimberly Squad

NORTHERN STATE LEAGUE
Seymour 8 2 800
Clintonville 6 4 600
Kaukauna 5 4 555
Kimberly 5 3 500
Two Rivers 4 5 444
Manitowoc 4 5 444
New London 2 8 200
Green Bay 1 10 001

SUNDAY'S GAMES
Manitowoc at Seymour.
Green Bay at Two Rivers.
Kimberly at New London (afternoon).
Kaukauna at Clintonville (night).

Clintonville Trainers and Seymour, leaders in the Northern State league's second round pennant scramble, will get real tests in Sunday's contests. The Trainers draw Kaukauna in a night exhibition at Clintonville and if Dick Weisberger of the Kaws is right he'll make things most interesting. The Trainers' batting average isn't any too high as it is and the Kaws, on the other hand, having been hitting opportunely, Seymour will clash with Manitowoc with Lefty Schoepke hurling for the invaders. The Ships are an in and out team and if they happen to get started right will be tough. Penzenstadler gets the Seymour call. In the other games, Kimberly goes to New London for an afternoon contest and Green Bay to Two Rivers.

CLINTONVILLE—Now that the end of the Northern State league season is drawing near, and the Clintonville Trainers still are in a deadlock with Seymour for first place, all eyes will be focused on the games Sunday. The Trainers meet Kaukauna in the local diamond in a night tilt. Seymour plays Manitowoc at Seymour in an afternoon tilt.

Clintonville is not displaying any too much confidence about the game Sunday night as the Kaukauna team is practically a new club with a new manager and several new pitchers. In addition, Kaukauna has defeated the Trainers twice this year and will be pointing to this game to run Clintonville's chances of remaining in first place.

Last Sunday night the Trainers added the New London High Life scalps to their belt, 5 to 2. Wednesday, however, the situation was somewhat changed when the Sheboygan Champs, holders of second place in the Tri-State league, downed the Trainers 5 to 3. Sheboygan is managed by Joe Hauser, famous slugger and first baseman of the American Association.

Sunday night Managers Bill Wulk and Len Goeringer plan to use either Sid Felts, lanky right hander who hasn't lost a game this round, or John Tomlin, who pitched the game last Sunday night against New London and added two hits to the Trainers list just to show how much he wanted to win. It is probable the Trainers' management will bring in a new catcher for tomorrow night.

KIMBERLY AT NEW LONDON
New London, a revenge battle will be on schedule at the ball park here Sunday afternoon when the Kimberly Papermakers invade this city in a Northern State league ball game. The New London High Life tripped the Papermakers 3 to 2 at Kimberly several weeks ago, putting up a hit in their pennant hopes.

Both teams will be after a whole week's rest. Lefty Berr, who furnished 12 New London slugs at the last meeting, is expected to perform again for the visitors while Marilyn Munn will hurt against him.

A change in the lineup appears likely for the High Life with Billy Hlat out of action with an injured hand and Bob Shertell away on vacation. The latter may be home for the afternoon game but if not Magalaska will draw the assignment. On Krohn will be behind the plate and Dobbek, no doubt, will be out in the field.

LEGION AT WEYAUWEGA
New London's The American Legion Sox will be away today Sunday afternoon when they travel to Weyauwega to meet the village team.

New London Sox will have a game today with Weyauwega at the Wolf River Valley. Several of the Sox players are expected to be in the first game on the first day of the season.

YESTERDAY'S STARS
Jim Rippe, Giants—Has thrown a home run beat Phillies, 4-2.
Hank Greenberg, Tigers—Hit three homers, driving in eight runs in doubleheader win over Browns.
Spud Chandler, Yankees—Whipped Athletics, 5-2, with six hits.
Fred Frankhouse and Cookie Lavagetto, Dodgers—Frankhouse blanked Bees with three hits and Lavagetto's single drove in run for 1-0 win.
Bobby Doerr, Red Sox—His tenth inning single sent winning run across to down Senators 4-3.
Thornton Lee, White Sox—Stopped Indians, 7-2, with seven hits.

City Title at Stake When Taverns-Grand Chute Clash

THE mythical baseball championship of Appleton will be at stake Sunday when Grand Chute hops over to the W. Spencer street diamond to clash with Becher Taverns.

Becher Taverns emerged with a higher standing than the Chutes in Fox River Valley league play but in the last encounter the Taverns barely eked out a 10-inning win, 8 to 7.

Last Sunday the Becher squad experienced an off-day when it met the Greenville Merchants but a return game is being arranged and a different story is promised.

Brokup to Pitch
Brokup is scheduled for mound duty Sunday afternoon while Bill Noffke is slated to hurl for the invaders. Both pitchers have good records in league competition.

None of Wally Murphy's tavern squad can be registered as sure starters because not all have clicked in various positions. The infield will find Cotton Van Vorden, Mueller and Wonsler while Rippl, Norm and Melv Pope will see action in the garden.

The Grand Chute lineup will show local talent as N. Kirk, F. Kroiss, Horn, Boya, Brueggeman in the infield and Brandt, Choudoir and Calmes in the outfield. The game is scheduled for 2 o'clock.

Tuesday—Taxis versus Menasha Merchants.

FORSTER TAVERNS remain undefeated in second round competition of the American City league as the result of a 4 to 1 victory over Paper Institute at Pierce park diamond last evening.

George Swamp was mounded for the winners and gave eight hits while whiffing twelve and walking two. Renier hurried for the Institute and limited the tavern team to four hits while fanning four and passing five.

Forster's pushed three runs over in the first frame when Feavel misjudged Choudoir's fly and it fell for a double. Choudoir stole third and continued home when the catcher threw wild Wisnet walked and scored second and third. He scored when Dietgen poked a long home run into right field.

The Paper gang had the bases loaded in the first with one out but couldn't get a run. They counted on the fourth when Hammer got a double, went to third on Meidman's infield hit, who advanced when Renner walked and Hammer stroled home when Feavel walked. The box score:

K. of C. Bowling Captains to Meet

Captains of last year's Knights of Columbus bowling team will meet at 7 o'clock Monday evening at the Catholic home to discuss bowling rules and organize the loop for the coming season. The opening date has been set for Sept. 12 and the league again will roll on the Elks alleys. Members of the council bowling committee are Hugo Pankratz, chairman, Sylvester Timmers, Walter Steenis, Larry Schreiter and Henry Otto.

Junior Cubs are Softball Champs

Pirates Cop in O. B. League; Midget Yanks Win Baseball Honors

KIMBERLY—The Junior Cubs won their second ball game from the Giants Thursday afternoon by a score of 5 to 3 and now are playground champions. The winning pitcher, F. Schneese, fanned seven batters, allowed six hits and walked three. F. Kokke, on the mound for the Giants, also allowed seven hits, walked six and fanned two.

The winners scored two runs in the first and second innings and added two scores in the fifth and one in the sixth. The Giants led in the first frame when two runs came in as Van Lieshout and Kneepkins doubled. Gafney singled and Kokke walked. Another run was scored in the third frame when Kneepkins counted after a walk. During the remainder of the game the losers held scoreless.

The midget Yanks won over the Cubs 3 to 0 in a playoff for the second half baseball championship. Holding the Cubs scoreless, the Yanks scored three runs in the second, third and fifth frames.

The Pirates won over the Cards, 6 to 5, for the softball championship in the older boys' league. D. Gaffney, pitching for the winners, fanned six batters, allowed five hits while B. Van Dyke, on the mound for the Cards, let loose with nine hits. F. Flewett connected with a homer in the third frame with one on. B. Van Hammond got a triple in the second inning. E. Vanden Boogaard of the losers got a single and a triple in four times up. The winning pitcher fanned five and walked five while Van Dyke of the Cards walked three and struck out seven.

HERE IT COMES—AND THERE IT GOES FOR A HIT

Playing his first season with the Clintonville Trainers, Matt Wagner, above, who comes from Bonduel, is the top ranking batter among regular performers on the Clintonville baseball team. He is hitting .329 from 25 hits in 76 times at bat, and is topped only by Sid Felts, pitcher, who doesn't perform as often. Wagner is used in either an infield or outfield position. This unusual picture is the result of a photographer's error, the picture being a double exposure, but because it was taken at night with a flash bulb and the camera held in the same position, it appears to be consecutive shots, one at the start of a swing, the other at the finish. ## Ripple Replaces Ott and Homers For Giants' Win

VICTORY ENABLES NEW YORKERS TO PICK UP HALF GAME ON PIRATES

NEW YORK—(AP)—Jimmy Ripple, filling in for the ailing Mel Ott, smashed a homer inside the park with a mate on base in the sixth inning yesterday to break a tie and give the Giants a 4 to 2 victory over the Phillies.

The win enabled the Giants to pick up a half game on the National league leading Pittsburgh Pirates and climb to within 4 1/2 games of the pace-setters, who were idle.

Passeau Strains Back
Rookie Bill Lohman went the route for the first time this season and held the futile Phils to four hits, all of them in the first four frames. It was his eighth victory against one defeat.

Wild Bill Hallahan, who succeeded Claude Passeau in the fourth, after the latter strained his back while pitching, was charged with the defeat.

Harry Danning, who had hit a homer earlier, opened the sixth with a single, and Ripple hit one on a line out to center field. Hershel Martin, the Phil's center fielder, might have played the ball better and held it to a single, but he came running in, tried to take the bounce with his bare hand, and missed. The ball rolled to the 483 foot mark and Ripple pranced around the base.

The Giants started the scoring in the first inning on George Myatt's double and Danning's single, the first of Catcher Hank's three hits. Ripple came off the bench to play when Ott turned up with an ailing back.

The Phils scored in the second on Morrie Aronovich's single, Bill Cisler's error and an infield out, and tied it up in the fourth on Chuck Klein's two-bagger and Spud Davis' base hit.

Appleton Girls Softball Team clashed with Oshkosh in a non-league game here last night at the Forster diamond which was halted by rain in the fifth frame. The Appleton girls were leading 6 to 5 when the skies opened.

Sunday the Appleton team will travel to Oshkosh to meet the Winnebago League Girls, considered the outstanding squad in the state.

In last night's game the visitors counted three runs in the second inning. Schroeder started with a single, and was followed by a double, walk and an error. The invaders scored another run in the fourth.

Appleton counted three runs on two hits, a walk and a third hit. The locals then took the lead in the fourth when they scored three more.

MANITOWOC—The New London's High Life continue to top the Northern State league team hitting column with a .258 average while Green Bay and Manitowoc are fighting it out for second place. An odd angle of the batting races is that Clintonville, one of the leaders in the wood and lost column, is last in team batting and Seymour, the other leader, is in fourth place.

Joe Vnuik, Manitowoc outfielder, skidded a bit but he is still leading the individuals with .374. Hawk of New London is hitting .368 with Shorty Zuidmuller, Green Bay, just a percentage point behind. Kelly, Seymour, .358 and Smogoleski, Two Rivers, .341, complete the "first five" of regulars.

Rain Halts Girls Softball Battle

Contest Called in the Fifth With Appleton Leading, 6 to 5

Appleton Girls softball team clashed with Oshkosh in a non-league game here last night at the Forster diamond which was halted by rain in the fifth frame. The Appleton girls were leading 6 to 5 when the skies opened.

Sunday the Appleton team will travel to Oshkosh to meet the Winnebago League Girls, considered the outstanding squad in the state.

In last night's game the visitors counted three runs in the second inning. Schroeder started with a single, and was followed by a double, walk and an error. The invaders scored another run in the fourth.

Appleton counted three runs on two hits, a walk and a third hit. The locals then took the lead in the fourth when they scored three more.

With one out and one run in for Oshkosh, in the fifth inning, the game was called.

Polish Falcons Aim to Clinch Fox Valley Title

Battle Oshkosh There Tomorrow in Second Game of Series

MANASHA—The Polish Falcons will meet the Oshkosh 6500 Cabs in the second game of the series to determine the Fox River Valley Baseball league champions at 10 o'clock Sunday morning at Menomonee park in Oshkosh. Originally scheduled for Sunday afternoon the game has been advanced to the morning because of a conflict over use of the diamond.

With one victory already tucked away in the two-out-of-three game series, the Falcons will be out to finish the series in short order. Their ace again will be Dave Kosloski, left-handed strikeout expert. Brother Herb Kosloski will do the receiving.

Win 7 Straight
The Cabs have lost 7 straight games and have been trying to talk the league and have been trying to talk themselves into a winning mood. They offered statistics to show that they had outbatted and outscored the Falcons as well as collected more extra base hits. They even offered figures to show that their pitching was on a par with that of Menasha. In the three games played between the two teams, the Falcons have won two. Artie Buzanowski, manager of the Falcons, declared, "The payoff is in games won."

In addition to the other battery to keep Oshkosh under control, the Falcons will have four 300 hitters and better to give the Cabs' Frank Klobner some trying moments. They are Badger Nadolny, speedy lead-off man; Richard Sheleski, outfielder; and Dave and Herb Kosloski.

The winner of the series not only will have the league crown but also will have a chance to compete in the state tournament at Milwaukee from Sept. 4 through 12. The Falcons would like to cut the series to two games so that they will have more time to prepare for the state championship games.

Budge Romps Over Frankie Parker in Casino Tourney

International Champion Matched With Sidney Wood in Finals

NEWPORT, R. I.—(AP)—Don Budge completed his first American singles competition since his successful European invasion today by defeating the Newport Casino tennis star with a 6-3, 6-2 victory over Sidney Wood of New York. Budge won here in 1935 and last year.

Casino Tennis Officials today were prepared to turn over their handsome bowl trophy to Don Budge, the international champion who won legs on it twice in the last three years and had only to defeat Sydney Wood of New York in the final today to gain permanent possession.

Budge gained the last round yesterday by romping through Frankie Parker of Beverly Hills, Calif., shortly before Wood became a finalist by wearing down the second-seeded Joe Hunt of Los Angeles, his doubles partner.

Budge also qualified for the doubles final with his Davis cup teammate, Gene Mako of Los Angeles, as a result of their triumph over Wayne Sabin of Los Angeles, and Elwood Cooke of Portland, Ore.

Wood, too, has a chance to appear in both of today's final events but before he can compete in the doubles climax, he and Hunt must overcome the one-set lead gained over them by Wilmer Allison and John Van Ryan, the Austin, Tex., veterans, during last night's interrupted semi-final.

When darkness drove them from the courts, Allison and Van Ryan led by 13-5, 6-3, 6-2. The match will be completed after Wood competes against Budge this morning.

Three in Thick of Fight for Honors In Canadian Meet

Toronto—(AP)—Barring a repetition of yesterday's sudden ups and downs, Paul Runyan of White Plains, N. Y., Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and Light Horse Harry Cooper of Chicago, the defending champion, were to fight it out over the final 36 holes today for the Canadian open golf championship.

NEXT WEEK'S GAMES
Tuesday—Kimberly-Clark versus Phones (5:30).
Woolen Mills softballers joined Coated Paper as the leader in the second round of the American Softball league race last night with a 10 to 8 victory over Fox River. Kimberly-Clark will have a chance to re-join the leaders Tuesday evening when it plays the Phones-Wires in the only remaining game with a bearing on the round title.

The league will hold a meeting at 8 o'clock Monday night at the Y.M.C.A. to make plans and set the dates of the second round playoff. Plans for the league's annual banquet also will be made. It is planned to start Thursday night at 5:30 with the second game being scheduled the following Saturday afternoon.

Last night's game saw Ole LaMar, Lorenz hurling for the Woolens but he wasn't the Ole of former years and he was hit hard and often. However, Howie Branchford, on the mound for the Fox River, was wild and issued eight walks. The Woolens got ten hits off Branchford and the Fox River eight off Ole. The losers erred six times and the winners four.

Shorty Herb led the Woolen Mills attack with four singles in as many trips to the plate. Harmon scored a homer for the Fox River in the big fourth inning with Jaber on the bases.

Fox River scored two runs in the first. Wegner walked, Lamers hit and an error was tossed in to load the sacks. Rammer then walked to force in Wegner and Lorenz fumbled LaMar's grounder and Lamers tallied.

Woolens added three in their half the first as Bowers walked, Herb beat out a bunt down the first base line, Branchford threw to first and there was no one there and the ball rolled into right field as both runners scored. Dought and Mortell grounded out. Crane walked and stole second, went to third when the ball was thrown into center, and then scored when he made a break for home and LaMar threw the ball high and wide to the plate.

The Woolens made it 6 to 2 in the second by scoring three runs on two hits, a walk, and an error. The Fox River came back with five in the fourth to take a 7 to 6 lead. Three hits, three walks and two errors accounted for the runs. The Woolens rattled up three markers, however, in their half the fourth on two walks and two hits.

Fox River scored its last run in the sixth as Lamers doubled and scored on LaMar's double. The game was called in the seventh because of darkness.

Yanks Increase Their Lead With Win Over Macks

Cop 5 to 2 as Cleveland Indians Bow to White Sox, 7 to 2

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—The New York Yankees' 10-game mark yesterday. The world champions combined a 14-hit attack with Spud Chandler's six-hit pitching to whip the Athletics, 5 to 2, while Cleveland's second-place Indians lost to Chicago.

The victory was Chandler's twelfth against three defeats for the season. After his mates staked him to a three-run lead in the second frame he was never threatened with defeat.

Whacks 23rd Homer

Every member of the Yankee lineup except Tommy Henrich and Joe Gordon hit safely at the expense of Line-Drive Lynn Nelson, and, but for silly base-running in spots, Gehrig and co. might have had two more runs.

Lou Gehrig whacked his twenty-third homer of the season to pace the three-run attack in the second, and Bill Dickey banged out a pair of doubles and a brace of singles. Chandler, himself, collected two hits.

Gehrig Starts Rally

The A's broke into the scoring column in the first on consecutive walks to Stan Sperry and Wally Moses. Bill Werber's infield hit and Frankie Hayes' infield grounder. Hayes also drove in the second Athletics tally with a single in the sixth.

Gehrig's round-tripper started the game-winning rally in the second. Singles by Dickey and Chandler, and Frank Crosetti's double sent the other two across. Dickey's single sent another run across in the fifth and Joe DiMaggio's base hit produced the final marker in the sixth.

INDIANS LOSE AGAIN

Cleveland—(AP)—Thornton Lee held the slipping Cleveland Indians to seven scattered hits yesterday and the Chicago White Sox pounded two Triple plays for 13 hits to win, 7-2.

Cleveland scored in the second inning when Hal Trosky drove his sixteenth home run of the year over the right field wall with Earl Averill on base. Marvin Owen and Joe Kuhel homered for the Sox, both with the bases empty.

The victors reached Whitehall for 12 hits before he retired in the seventh. Lee, who previously had a double, singled to start the barrage that brought in Galehouse.

Gerry Walker, Sox outfielder, was hit in the right eye by his own foul tip in the fifth inning and was forced to leave the game, his face dripping blood. A stitch was taken in the gash over his eye and he said he would play Saturday.

GREENBERG HITS 3 HOMERS

Detroit—(AP)—Led by Hank Greenberg, who drove out three homers to bring his season total to 41, the Detroit Tigers swept a double header with the St. Louis Browns yesterday, taking the opener 8 to 7 and the nightcap 7 to 4.

Greenberg homered off Oral Hildebrand with the bases full in the fourth frame of the opener. In the last of the ninth he hit for the circuit with the sacks empty off Fred Johnson to break up the game.

In the second game Greenberg homered in the first off Howard Mills with two mates on. The day's clotting put him ahead of Babe Ruth's pace of 127 when the record of 60 was established. Ruth did not hit his forty-first homer until Aug. 27. Until today, Greenberg's best homer total was 40, set in 1937.

George McQuinn, Brown's first sacker, hit safely in both games to extend to 29 the number of successive games in which he has hit.

Another streak was halted when Billy Rogell, Tigers shortstop rolled out in the third inning of the opener after having received seven successive bases on balls in three games.

Hubbell Believes 'Screwball' Linked With Arm Ailment

Memphis, Tenn.—(AP)—Ailing Carl Hubbell, the New York Giants' master left-hander, arrived here by plane today to see a specialist about his crippled pitching arm.

In seemingly good spirits, he joked with reporters at the airport and announced he would be examined later in the day by Dr. Justin Spencer Speed, bone specialist.

Hubbell reiterated previous statements that his arm hurt him only while pitching—a sharp pain on the inside of his left elbow.

Asked if he feared "screwball" had anything to do with his injury, he replied: "Yes, you bet it has—after 16 years of pitching it."

RED SOX WIN DUEL, 4-3

Boston—(AP)—Bobby Doerr yesterday broke up a pitchers' battle between Fred Ostermuller and Monte Weaver when his single with two down in the seventh gave the Boston Red Sox a 4-3 victory over the Washington Senators.

He drove in the Sox's slugging first baseman, Jimmy Foss, who had walked and been sacrificed to second. It was Foss who started Boston's scoring in the fifth when his mighty homer off the left field fence, his thirty-third for the season, drove in Vosmik ahead of himself.

Washington piled up a three run lead in the first three innings. Bonura's single scoring two men in the first after Ostermuller had walked two and hit another. In the third Al Simmons' double and a single by Bluez gave the Senators their third tally.

Andy Uram, Cecil Isbell Join Green Bay Packers In First Official Drills

GREEN BAY—(AP)—Green Bay Packers huskies trotted out on the gridiron today for their first official practice of the season in preparation for the impending National Professional Football league campaign.

Most of the Packer veterans and some of the newcomers worked out on the field in light "limbering up" drills during the week after reaching contract terms with Coach E. L. (Curly) Lambeau.

While several of the roster remained unassigned, latest to enter the fold was Charles (Buckets) Goldenberg, who contracted for his sixth season yesterday. Goldenberg, formerly a blocking quarterback, was shifted to the guard position last year.

Hinkle to Sign

Veteran Fullback Clarke Hinkle was reported to have reached an oral agreement yesterday with Coach Lambeau and was scheduled to add his name to a contract today.

Recruits to the squad this season include Andy Uram of Minnesota, and Cecil Isbell of Purdue, both expected to add additional punch to the powerful Packer backfield. Uram, a six-footer who weighs 186 pounds, is a fine forward passer, an accurate blocker and an effective defensive man. Regarded as one of Minnesota's greatest running halfbacks, he was a sensation his junior year but cracked an arm bone as a senior and saw considerably less action.

Ookie Miller, former Purdue center, was among those who arrived over the weekend and worked out with the squad prior to today's official drill.

Packer Lineup

The Packer lineup includes: Ends—Ed Brett, Washington State; Fred Borak, Creighton; Milt Gantenbein, Wisconsin; Carl Mulenau, Utah Aggies; Don Hutson, Alabama; Bernard Scherer, Nebraska; Bill Smith, Marshall.

Tackles—Bufford Reay, Vanderbilt; Lester Chapman, Tulsa; Leo Katalinas, Catholic U.; Bill Lee, Alabama; Martin Schreyer, Purdue; Champ Seibold, Wisconsin; Lyle Sturgeon, North Dakota State.

A grudge battle between Y. M. C. A. and Moose teams of the Fraternat league failed to settle a supremacy argument for the squads played a 5-5 tie at Wilson school diamond last evening. Three pitchers were employed by the Y boys last night while Cahill went the route for Moose.

Moore still claim theirs is the better team for they led, 5 to 3, at the last half of the seventh frame. Y. M. C. A. brought two runs in under cover of darkness, it was reported. Moore counted once in the initial inning, once in the second stanza, twice in the third chapter and once in the fifth frame. Y. M. C. A. came through with one tally in the third and two markers in the fourth.

Milwaukee Snaps Columbus Winning Streak by 5 to 3

Mickey Heath Clouts His Twenty-Fourth Home Run of Season

COLUMBUS, OHIO—(AP)—The Milwaukee Brewers snapped a Columbus winning streak of six straight games by defeating the Red Birds, 5 to 3, in the final game of a series here last night.

Chuck Marow pitched effectively over the entire route as the Brewers registered their lone victory in three games at the expense of Hal Kelleher, who yielded four of Milwaukee's seven hits in the first five innings.

Fred Schulte drove in two of Milwaukee's runs with a triple in the third and then scored himself when Jim Bucher threw the relay into the Columbus dugout. The other two Brewer runs came in the fifth on Mickey Heath's twenty-fourth home run of the season and Lin Storti's nineteenth.

The Kansas City Blues jumped ahead of Indianapolis in the standings last night by defeating Toledo, 7 to 2, behind Jack Larocco's seven-hit pitching and some lucky clubbing. Meanwhile, the Indians fell before St. Paul, 6 to 1, as Art Herring turned in a five-hit performance. The victory gave the Saints a six game advantage in the standings.

Louisville won its series final with Minneapolis, 4 to 2.

New London Girls In 36 to 5 Win

Bat Around Twice in Sixth Inning and Score 16 Runs

New London—It was just a little batting practice with some road work for the Bumps Bowlby Softball girls last night when they beat the visiting Oconto girls, 36 to 5. It was a Fox River Valley Girls league game but both teams are out of the second half championship race.

A double-header for the evening scheduled with Oconto and the Berliner Beers of Berlin featuring the appearance of Kit Klein, world famous skater, was called off early in the afternoon because of the wet condition of the diamond. However, half the Oconto team already was on its way so the league game was carried through. Arrangements will be made for the exhibition game with the Berliner girls at a later date.

The New London lassies swatted the ball merrily last night, batting around twice in the sixth inning for 16 runs. The invaders found it practically impossible to field the ball. Stella Fenton got the only home run. The Candy girls used three pitchers, Fenton starting, Schoenike following for two innings and Mary Dawson finishing. Schoenike took over after Fenton allowed three runs in the third with New London leading 11 to 4. Dawson walked the last run around.

The New London girls beat Waupaca at Antigo in an exhibition game Thursday evening, 6 to 5. The contest was a pitching duel between Schoenike and Jamison of Waupaca. New London got 10 hits and Waupaca 9. The latter scored their five runs quickly in the first and second frames but the Candy girls knotted the score in the fourth with five runs. Longrie crossed the plate for the winning run in the eighth.

Australian Netters Have Eyes on Davis Cup and Big League Baseball

BY BERNARD FREEMAN

BROOKLINE, MASS.—(AP)—Having wrecked Germany's Davis cup hopes, Australia's four-man tennis squad pointed today for two new objectives.

One, of course, is the celebrated trophy which Donald Hudge and his United States teammates brought back to this country last year. The other is to see as many big league ball games as possible between now and Labor day weekend, when they will try to wrest the cup from the Americans at Philadelphia.

If it weren't for the two remaining exhibition singles with Germany today—Australia clinched the series yesterday by sweeping the doubles—all the Aussies would be out at Fenway park seeing their first big league ball game.

"Kern About Baseball"

"We're all frightfully keen about your game of baseball, you know," explained Harry Hopman, their non-playing captain. "We've seen some minor games. I believe you call it, in the west, but never a big league game. We all plan to see the double header, I believe you say, with Washington Sunday."

As for the Davis cup, there's no lack of confidence among the visitors.

"We feel we have a very good chance," said Hopman, and Jack Bromwich, Adrian Quist and L. A. Schwartz, the other team members nodded in assent.

George M. Lott, who coached the Aussies, and Vincent Richards, another former American Davis cupper, also thinks an Australian victory is probable.

All that was left for the Aussies today was to try to make good Lott's prediction they'd beat Germany, 5-0.

Bromwich takes on Georg Von Metaxa in one singles and Quist meets Henner Henkel in the other.

Inland Lakes Regatta Provides Season's Biggest Week for Neenah-Menasha Society

Church Will Send Six to Convention

SIX persons from Trinity English Lutheran church will attend the Sunday school convention of the Wisconsin conference of United Lutheran churches next Friday and Saturday at the English Evangelical Lutheran church of the Incarnation in Milwaukee. They are the Rev. and Mrs. D. E. Bosserman, Mrs. Albert Rochl, Mrs. George E. Johnson, Miss Lillian Oertel and Miss Rosella Hanson.

Several hundred delegates from 50 Sunday schools will attend the annual meeting sponsored by the Synod of the Northwest. Sessions will open at 9 o'clock Friday morning and speakers will include the Rev. G. B. McCreary, Sheboygan; the Rev. George Overdier, Cudahy; and the Rev. John Shannon, Milwaukee. The convention banquet will be Friday night.

Thirty-five members of Daughters of Isabella of Green Bay are attending a retreat over the weekend at Monte Alverno Retreat House. The services and meditations opened last night and will close at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Miss Doris Ryan will be leader at the meeting of Baptist Young People's Union at 6:30 Sunday evening at the church.

About 16 members of the Mission Study group of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church were entertained at a picnic supper last evening on the lawn of the home of Miss Emma Wickesberg, Kernan avenue. After the supper the Misses Marion Runge and La Verne Woepse, delegates from Young People's society, and Helen Filtz, of the Sunday school teachers, gave reports on the Green Lake conference from which they returned recently. The rest of the evening was spent informally.

Young Ladies' sodality of St. Therese church will receive holy communion at the 7:30 mass Sunday morning. There will be no breakfast meeting until September.

The Inland Lakes Yachting association regatta is over, and the busiest week Neenah-Menasha society has had this summer is just a memory. Although there is no sign of a sailboat in any of these pictures, they are as typical of the regatta as the white sails that skimmed over Lake Winnebago all week. The races occupied the attention of yachtsmen and spectators during the day, but no night went by without large dinner and dancing parties and smaller boat parties for the scores of visitors who had come to the Twin Cities for the event. Perched on top of the George Banta launch in the picture at the upper left are some of the girls who were Miss Peggy Banta's guests at a boat party she gave Thursday evening. Left to right, they are Miss Jane Magin, Milwaukee, Miss Alice Joys, Milwaukee, Miss Banta, Menasha, Miss Emmy Lou Leedom, Milwaukee, and Miss Barbara Rounds, Appleton.

The pictures at the top center and right were taken at the novel shipwreck party Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whiting gave Monday night at their boathouse on the Fox river at Neenah. Guests appeared in costumes they might assemble hastily if their ship were to sink at 4 o'clock in the morning, and that accounts for the loose shirt Kimberly Stuart, Neenah, is wearing in the picture at the top center. He is dancing with Mrs. Stephen Hord, Lake Forest, Ill., who had attached some of the pop eyes made famous by George Petty's "Esquire" man to her spectacles. Wearing Hawaiian costumes, Bill Charlie, Neenah, and Miss Frances Whiting, upper right, were also among those present at the boathouse party. Most of the other major parties of the week took place at North Shore Golf club, where the three lower pictures were taken. Miss Jane Magin, Milwaukee, and Robert Everett, Oak Park, Ill., are at the left, and the foursome in the center is made up of Jere Mead, Madison, Miss Gail Brodhead, Madison, Miss Nina Krueger, Neenah, and Miss Helen Schuette, Madison. Miss Margy Ogden, Milwaukee, and Alan Pick, West Bend, are at the right. (Post-Crescent Photos)

Losing Team Wants Return Contest as Ladies' Day Feature

With more than a month of practice behind them, the losers in the 2-team competition at North Shore Golf club's ladies' day on June 20 have challenged the winners to play them again on Monday, hoping that the result will be reversed. Mrs. J. F. Hunt, Neenah, is sports chairman for the day, and Mrs. R. S. Powell, bridge chairman. Guest day, planned for last Monday, was postponed because of the rain and will be held Aug. 29.

Mrs. Mowry Smith, Neenah, defeated Miss Nina Mori, also of Neenah, in the finals of the July handicapped tournament this week.

V. F. W. and Auxiliary To Hold Annual Outing

Harvey Pierre post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and auxiliary will have their annual picnic for members and invited guests Sunday at Erb park. The affair is to begin at 10 o'clock in the morning and will include a program of games and stunts for the children. Families will bring their own basket lunches. Barney Gambisky is general chairman of the event, and the auxiliary committee working with him is composed of Mrs. Max Buske, chairman, Mrs. Ted Albrecht, Mrs. Robert Smith and Mrs. Julius Homblette.

Chapter One

A Riviera Blonde

"A" said Hugo Stern suddenly. "A blonde over there has her eye on you."

"I sighed. 'Do you mind,' I asked patiently, 'being a trifle more explicit? This place is full of blondes.'"

"The one I mean is sitting thirty degrees right, at the corner table. Don't look round. She may be some kind of flame you'd rather not rekindle, or she may merely have a weakness for the Tarzan type of male, but she's definitely got her eye on you, and if you catch it she'll take it as an invitation."

"Not when she gets a clear sight of my face," I retorted, and I turned, ignoring his protests, balancing my gin fizz precariously on the arm of my chair and surveying the landscape. It was even as I had said. Far as the eye could reach, the open air terrace of the Carlton was coated with nothing but blondes, ranging from the ashy fairness of Scandinavia, through varying synthetic shades of peroxide, to the ripe corn-color of the Germans.

Men were there too, swarthy as nature or sun-tan had made them and dressed for the most part in the blue cotton shirt and trousers of the fishermen whose native coast they had invaded, but they were merely the necessary background to the ladies who were the very perfume of the scene. The Cote d'Azur, like a gaudy flowerbed they sat there, laughing, chattering, drinking--blondes in bathing-suits, in bright-colored trousers, in gaily patterned beach-robies.

To right and left of us towered the great white luxury hotels of the Cannes Croisette: the Malmarmar, the Martinez in front stretching the still, inter-stucco balustrade of the terrace, and beyond that lay the blue Mediterranean, crowned with the shimmering, hazy vault of the midday August sky.

The blonde in question was sitting alone, at a small table in the shadow of a clipped bay tree, sipping a pinkish, frothy drink from a tall glass; a slender, long-limbed creature dressed in white shorts and shirt, with a crimson sash folded about her slim waist, and a red chiffon handkerchief mottled on her crisp golden curls. The whole effect of her was of youth and grace and ease--only her eyes, dark and brooding, gave the lie to the picture; and those eyes, as Hugo had said, were fixed intently on me.

As I caught her gaze she smiled suddenly, with a flash of white teeth, and I lifted a hand in greeting; but I looked away hurriedly. I was in Cannes for a bare couple of days, and that only to see Hugo, and I had no mind for any feminine entanglements that would cut short my time with him.

"I don't know her," I assured him, but he shook his head mournfully.

"You shouldn't have looked her way. There you are, she's coming over now and you'll find yourself stung for a cocktail and lunch before you know where you are. I know these Riviera blondes."

"Not lunch," I retorted, "but she can have her cocktail. She may be a gold-digger," I added thoughtfully, "but she's extraordinarily easy to look at."

Hugo shook his head again. "Cut out the cocktail too," he said firmly. "She may be easy to look at, but I haven't seen you these two years and why should I lose my pleasure to give a girl a free drink? You leave me to handle her."

Hard-Hearted

I felt that he was being unnecessarily hard-hearted, but I knew well, at the same time, that he had plenty of excuse. The French Riviera, these days, is swarming with authors of all sorts, shapes and sizes. Best sellers are there, and not-so-good sellers; but Hugo was that rare bird of a thriller-writer with a world-wide circulation.

Apart from that, he was a handsome devil, a confirmed bachelor in his middle forties with a comfortable private income apart from his prodigious sales, so that it was no wonder he was a trifle cynical where women were concerned. He knew all the types and had been pursued by most of them; and, best of all, he knew the ways of the Riviera, for he had a villa outside of Cannes where he spent the half of the year that he wasn't exploring the queer corners of the world in search of adventure.

I looked at him now, at his dark, hawk-nosed face that might have been a Spanish grandee's if it hadn't been for the astonishing blue of the eyes, at his square jaw and massive shoulders, and thought, with a little regret, that the cynicism that had been at first only a preventive cloak was now becoming a part of him. Under his steeple, good-natured manner there lay, I well knew, a will as hard as granite, and I had a shrewd suspicion that there was more superimposed on it a grim determination to consider only the comfort and well-being of one person, and that person Hugo Stern.

"As you will," I said, and sighed. "But let her down lightly, old man. After all, she's only a kid."

We both struggled to our feet, for the girl stood beside us. Seen nearer to, she was even prettier than at a distance. A bare twenty, I thought. She stood now looking from one to the other of us with a touch of uncertainty; but as I smiled in response, she gave a little sigh of relief and dropped into a vacant chair.

"Well, now," she said, and her voice was a lovely thing, deep and husky and vibrant against the parrot chatter around us. "Isn't this nice? I thought it was you, and then I fancied I had made a mistake, and then I was sure I hadn't, so I came over."

It was to me she spoke, and I turned to her.

$900,000 Increase Shown in Menasha Assessment Rolls

Real Estate, Personal Property Valued at $13,504,400 for 1938

Menasha—The assessed valuation of Menasha for 1938 increased over $900,000 as compared with the 1937, according to the tabulation prepared by City Clerk Walter J. Doughty and based on the assessment figures of R. M. Heckner and Joseph Stommel. Menasha's two assessors. The increase represents a gain in both real estate and in personal property.

The total assessed value of the city is $13,504,400 for 1938 as compared with $12,582,864 for 1937. The gain is largely due to the fact that for the first time new homes and construction started since May, 1935, enters the assessment roll. The legislature granted an exemption on new construction in order to encourage building at that time.

The total value of real estate in the city with improvements on it is $10,070,435 as compared with $1,250,900 in 1937. Personal property is valued at $1,333,065 while last year it was $1,322,923.

Residential Highest

The largest amount of the real estate value is in residential land and improvements, $6,403,205. In 1937 it was valued at $5,950,155. The land is assessed at $1,716,340 while the improvements are valued at $4,686,865. Mercantile land is valued at $307,360 with improvements at $1,017,055 for a total value of $1,324,415. Mercantile real estate was valued at $1,153,435 in 1937.

Manufacturing is valued at only $112,605 but the factories on the land are assessed at $3,922,020 for a total value of $4,034,625. There is only $7,350 worth of agricultural land in the city and it has no improvements on it. All of that land is located in the Fourth ward. Manufacturing real estate and improvements were valued at $4,153,945 in 1937 while in that year there was agricultural land valued at $7,725. Some of the land carried on the rolls as agricultural in 1937 has been changed to residential lands with improvements.

The Second ward has the highest real estate value, $4,029,800, followed by the Third ward with $3,686,890. The First ward is valued at $1,660,855 while the Fourth ward is assessed at $1,485,625. The Fifth ward has the lowest valuation, $1,207,265.

Personal Property Up

Personal property valuation shows an increase of $100,000, mostly in manufacturing stock, machinery and tools and furniture and fixtures. Only two items show decreases. They are Merchants' stock which is valued at $243,325 in 1938 but was $260,366 while the miscellaneous item of personal property is $55,485 in 1938 and was $64,136 last year.

Manufacturers stock has increased to $843,765 in 1938 from $758,485 a year ago. Launches and motor boats also show a decided increase. They are set at $10,710 this year while last year they were only $4,025. Machines and tools are valued at $132,710 in 1938 as compared with $92,885 a year ago. Furniture and fixtures are set at $12,440 for 1938 and were $13,215 in 1937.

Call Perigo Now About Mattress Rebuilding Needs

Firm Also Makes New Mattresses: Warns of Winter Closing Plan

People are more aware of the importance of good, restful sleep in maintaining their health than they used to be and they know, too, that science has made it possible to buy correctly manufactured mattresses which are conducive to good health.

Children are given an early start in the correct way to sleep, using mattresses which allow the body to rest in a straight line, the spine straight, giving the body the chance to rest most comfortably and correctly. If the mattress is lumpy and sags, good sleep is absolutely impossible, of course.

The Perigo Mattress Company, located at 129 Canal street, Neenah, is offering a last minute call to people who have planned to have their old mattresses rebuilt, but have neglected to arrange with the Perigo firm for the work. Perigo's extend this advance notice, therefore, that winter months will find the firm, as usual, closed so now is the time to have all of your mattress rebuilding and repairing work taken care of.

Maintaining the health of the family, is one of the major duties of every housewife and to disregard the importance of good mattresses is negligence which is bound to bring unpleasant results. Children and adults both need rest which is absolutely indispensable in keeping

About 300 Persons Attend Concert in Little Chute Park

Little Chute—Approximately 300 persons attended the program presented by the members of the Little Chute Community band at the high school park Thursday evening. It was given under the direction of "Bill" Novotny of Oshkosh and was the fifth of a series of outdoor concerts this season. The program: "Blue Jacket," march, Emerson; "The Black Mask," overture, Haydn; "The Love Southern Melodies," Hayes; "El Capitan," march, Sousa; "Song of Love," Schubert; "Our Special," march, Jewell; Stars and Stripes," march, Sousa.

Mrs. Theodore Tiedler of Green Bay is spending a week here visiting relatives and friends.

Gerald Schommer, Richard De Bruin, Joseph Brassers and Norbert Van Gompel are spending the week end at Bear Lake.

Martin Boots and George Weyenberg, Jr. left Thursday for a seven-day trip to the north coast to improve their health and a poor mattress has never contributed to this end.

You will be surprised at the low cost this firm states, of rebuilding your old mattresses so that they look and feel like new. At a special saving you can now have your old mattress rebuilt like new for only four dollars or have inner springs built into old mattresses at only $8.95. Completely new mattresses are also made by the Perigo firm to your special order at reasonable cost.

Take inventory now and let this reliable firm solve your mattress problems before the mattress rebuilding season is over. A call to Neenah 44, will give you any information which you may want regarding the work done by this firm.

'Indoor Season' Approaches, Time To Consult Nehls

Reliable Paint and Wallpaper Firm Offers Helpful Advice

Late summer is the start of the "indoor season," and as such starts a wave of fall cleaning and redecorating in every home from basement to attic. The entire house must be affected in this change to a home that will be more "lived in" than in the summertime.

The bright colors of summer will be varied. New wallpapers will replace that in the rooms where the family gathers most. Floors will be repaired and checked for cracks and warp—the wood stained, varnished, and waxed. Plastering will remove cracks, stains, and dirt and wallpaper and paint will add new color to it.

Wallpaper and paints, its sales, and application has been the business of the William Nehls company, 226 W. Washington street, for over 30 years. The Nehls firm is offering the largest stock of wallpaper in its long history with a complete selection of smart, new, washable patterns prepared to take care of every decorating need at the lowest possible cost without sacrifice of quality.

If it is painting you are interested in, this reliable firm offers you the famous Benjamin Moore paints and varnishes. The firm warns, however, that there is no such thing as a bargain when it comes to buying paint. Inferior paint, as you may have realized from past experience, means a poor-looking job and usually requires expensive repainting.

So, for quality and savings, stop at the Nehls store and inspect its quality line of Moore paints. You will find a Moore paint for every purpose, dependable, time-proved, and made of tested ingredients to assure long and satisfactory life. A phone call to 432 is all that is necessary for an estimate of your painting or wallpapering needs and it will of course be given you cheerfully and without obligation.

Several weeks visit with relatives in South Dakota.

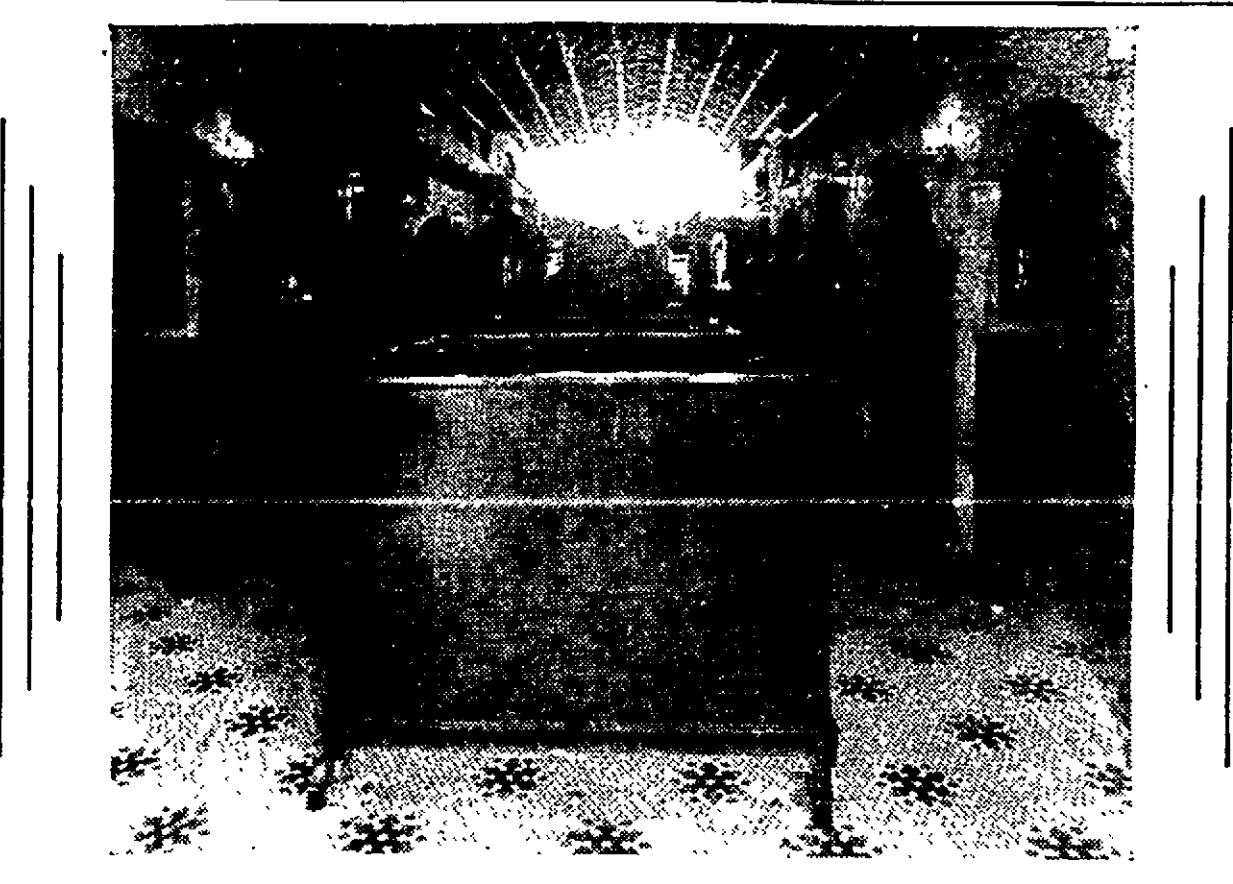

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brys and children have returned from a week's visit with relatives in Milwaukee.

Herman Runtle of Kaukauna, Ben Hurkman and Peter A. Gloude-mans of Little Chute and A. Ber-nard of Green Bay will leave Sunday for a week-end at Pickering Lake, Langlade county.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Van Gompel and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Van Dyn-hoven, Jr. left Thursday for a several weeks' visit with relatives in Idaho.

The condition of Mrs. Leonard Pynenberg, who is seriously ill at St. Elizabeth hospital, was slightly improved Friday.

LA VILLA OFFERS AIR-CONDITIONED COMFORT

A view of the long, spacious, and comfortable booth room of the La Villa Restaurant, 130 E. College ave., is shown above. This part of the La Villa, like the entire restaurant, offers patrons real comfort even during the hottest summer days because of the modern, fully equipped air-conditioning system operating year-round at this popular eating establishment. Summer and winter, comfortable, healthful temperatures with proper humidity content are maintained, adding considerably to the already comfortable and pleasant dining atmosphere of this restaurant. La Villa Restaurant patrons agree that it is the ideal place to stop for lunches, dinners, sandwiches, snacks, and, of course, a cold glass of beer during the regular dining hours or during uptown shopping or after shows. The service is first-class, courteous, and friendly with reasonable prices prevailing. Its candy department offers a choice of many assortments of the finest candies, done up, if you wish, in special boxes fitting for special occasions. Stop in at the La Villa soon, experience the luxurious hot summer weather comfort. You will enjoy your food more because of it and realize complete relaxation from your daily work.
